Better Business.

Nine-year-old John's father is a labor leader and John hears much of "division of labor," etc., so he has already formed ideas on the subject. He goes to church every Sunday with his mother, but the other evening a neighbor took him to prayer meeting for the first time in John's life. Ah! I learned Mr. Gawdhurst again the thoughts wandering at once to pie. "Mirror this morning. Pie. Mirror last night."

"I saw," said Mr. Fact grimly, "the porter blacking the boot that kicked him last night."

Little Mary was alone one afternoon and evidently thinking "cheese" was the plural form asked "May I have a chew?"

One day she was told "to behave" to which she replied: "I am being."

When Aunt Nell was sick she was interested in her various symptoms and the difference between pills and tablets was explained to her. That evening she said to her father: "I wish you would buy me a setting pill."
