THE CARLISLE MERCURY.

CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1921

VOL. LIV. NUMBER 51

THE MERCURY.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1921

Warren R. Fisher ..... Publisher
Grimes Caywood ..... Adv. Editor

Entered at the Carlisle, Ky. postoffice as second class mail matter.

On year (in advance)	$2.00
Six months (in advance)	.50
Three months (in advance)	.25

HEADQUARTERS

While Ed Wallace was skinning a rabbit one day last week, his knife slipped, cutting a deep gash in his left wrist. Dr. R. S. Peed dressed the wound.

Mr. Robert Buckler and Mrs. E. D. Martin visited their sister, Mrs. Rebecca Reed, near Milton, Sunday.

Mrs. Lloyd Smith is ill this week, coming with an attack of throat trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Booth were in Paris shopping Thursday.

BEAVER

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gosnee where in Carlisle on business Tuesday night.

Mr. H. B. Rule visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Rule, near Stoy's Point, the past week.

Mr. Rule spent from Friday until Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. W. M. Booth, near Moorefield.

EAST UNION

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Terrell visited Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Terrell and family Sunday.

Rev. Delaney preached to his usual large congregation at this place, Sunday morning and night. He will be here with us the fourth Sunday and a protracted meeting will be conducted until one is organized.

The school will give an entertainment and a play Thursday night.

Mrs. K. B. Trimble and Dr. Lee Martin remain quite ill with rheumatism.

The ladies and will give a Xmas entertainment Friday night.

Will Dray, of Paris, visited his father and family, Mrs. Dorsey Terrell Sunday.

SHAKE BAG

John Wells, "Babe" Holland, "Ted" Fleet and Amby Holland with spend Christmas Afternoon with Clarence Gray of Hoe Locks.

Georgie Porter walked home from Loughlin's one night last week.

Ernest Brayfield was a business visitor in Carlisle on day last week.

Nicie the trip is a different.

Henry Flynn and family one night last week.

Mrs. Ethel Holland has a new talking machine.

Nicie young peanut through our village one day this week on his way back to Carlisle.

Mrs. Mabel Shoemaker visited her parents one day this week.

Nicie wash out girls, come young man in our village, has a new red neck tie.

"Little Tuppy" Adams spent Thursday night with John Wells last Wednesday night.

Ed Rankin went to Carlisle on business and walked fast Saturday.

Miss Christine Stamp is still attending school in Carlisle.

Go to the corner grocery to do your Christmas shopping.

Don't forget there will be school Friday night.

Mrs. Wells returned to Moore, Ford Sunday afternoon, after spending the week end with her mother, Mrs. Holland.

Eating peanuts at 10 cents per pound is the order of the day.

Everybody hello who seen the ringing dance who?

Miss Elizabeth Rankin attended the show in Carlisle one evening last week with her friend, Miss Nicie.

Quite a number of our young people attended church afternoon in Carlisle, to report a delightful time.

Jim Will Loughlin sees a horse to every motor power, and he is going to move by motor power.

Mrs. Ethel Holland of last Saturday was a shopping visitor in Carlisle.

Mrs. Ben Herndon came in last Monday to attend a Prying Party at Mrs. Fann, Ky.

Wanted—A bottle of hair tonic.

Come to the Christmas tree at Shake Bag school house Saturday night. Admission 10 cents.

SUGAR CREEK HONOR ROLL

First grade—Special honor: Roger Arnold, Charles Barker, honor: Raymond Arnold, Mary Barker, Mildred Bell.

Second grade—Special honor: Roger Bell, honor: William Fleming.

Fourth grade—Honor: Bessie Pewitt, Christine Florence.

Seventh grade—Honor: Ruth Caywood, Malinda Ellis.

Laura E. Parnell, teacher.

STONY CREEK

Our school is getting along nicely with about thirty in attendance.

Mrs. John McGinnis was here one week end with John Wallace and family.

Hershel and Elmer Dampier were with Walker, Ward and family Saturday night and Sunday.

Jackson Williams, of Bourbon county, spent Saturday night with the Hunt boys.

Mrs. Smith, of Sims Hill, has moved to the home of Mrs. Nancy Hamm.

Mr. Smith and Thomas Dampier were guests of Rev. Carver at Cowan last Friday.

There will be preaching at Stony Creek church Saturday night and Sunday night, January 7 and 8, by the pastor, Rev. E. Carver.

LONG RUN

Mr. Ernest Bollinger and family spent Sunday with father, Mr. Jesse Bollinger, at Higbee, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Black, Mr. Jas. Black and Mr. Elvie Myers were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McCann.

Don't forget Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and be on time.

Mrs. Elmer Vinson returned to her home Tuesday from the Good Samaritan hospital at Lexington, where she underwent a very serious operation. She is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Colliver, of Carlisle, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bollinger Saturday night and Sunday.

SPROUT

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sing spent Sunday with Mr. J. T. Ring, of Cane Run.

Mrs. Mabel Hamilton spent Thursday with Mrs. Van Thornberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Ring spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ring.

TEA RUN

Hattie Harlett spent from Thursday until Sunday with F. T. McCord family.

Arthur Gray, wife and two children spent Sunday morning with Willie Harlett and family.

Willie Mitchell and three children spent a few days with Joe Mitchetree and family.

The sale of A. H. Mitchell Saturday was well attended.

Bud and Mitchell came down from Paris Saturday to attend the sale of their father.

Mrs. Harlett spent Thursday with Mrs. Perry McCord and family.

Willie Harlett and wife, Irene Harlett and Pete Mitchell were in Paris Saturday.

ISHMAEL

Mr. Robert George spent Sunday with Mr. Tom Clarke.

Mrs. Ella Barnett spent Thursday with Mrs. Mary Ann Clarke.

Mr. William Clay spent Sunday with Mr. Cecil Campbell.

Mr. Cecil Campbell, who is attending to Olive Hill, came Friday and spend the holidays with her parents.

There will be a Christmas tree and program at the Ishmael school house, on December 25, beginning at 7 o'clock.

BAREFOOT

Edgar Sidles wishes his friends to remember him with a card on his birthday, which occurs December 25. Address 1618 Main.

Mr. R. E. Waggoner was the guest of Mr. Ed Ring Sunday.

Mr. Floyd Platt and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ring were guests of L. D. Hamilton and family a few days the past week.

Mr. Ed Ring and son, Raymond, were guests of Mr. Robert Sidles Sunday afternoon.

Miss Fannie Miller Sunday.

ELLISVILLE

The Ellisville School will give an entertainment followed by a Christmas tree, Saturday night, Dec. 24. As the school is in debt an admission of 10 cents will be charged. Everybody is invited.

Mrs. George Taylor, of Carlisle were Sunday guests of Miss Elizabeth Rankin.

Mrs. James Watson at her home, Friday Dec. 16. Burial took place in the Ellisville cemetery.

MT. MORIAH

Mr. and Mrs J. B. Sammit and Mr. H. Sparks visited Mr. and Mrs. John Moore Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sammit visited relatives in Carlisle the latter part of last week until Sunday.

Mrs. Sammit was the guest of Mrs. Lizzie Edwards Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sammit and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sammit and family Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Edwards and Mrs. Ada Fuller were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alphen Curtis Sunday.

Mr. Ernest Fuller, of Sulbwell, Ky., visited his brother, Mr. Orval Fuller, Friday.

Mrs. Jno. Summitt visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sammit Sunday.

Mr. Jno. E. King is on the sick list.

Mr. F. B. Sparks, of Carlisle, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Summitt Tuesday night.

EWING

W. S. Allen and bride returned to Ewing Thursday night after an extended honeymoon trip to Washington and Mrs. A. T. Williams.

Mrs. Elizabeth Helvestine and daughter, Miss Helvestine, returned Sunday from Winchester where they had been for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Helvestine and wife.

Mr. Edmonds and wife, of Paris, were the week end guests of Mrs. Jolly. Mrs. Jolly accompanied them home for a few weeks visit.

Mrs. C. B. Morford shopped in Maysville Monday.

Miss Ruth Ewing is home from Millersburg where she is attending school for the Xmas holidays.

Charlie Williams is home from Detroit, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams.

The monthly meeting of the C. W. B. M. will be at the home of Mrs. F. B. Thompson Thursday afternoon. After the program delightful refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Oscar Green returned to her home in Maysville Monday morning after a visit to Mrs. E. C. Dunlap and family for a few days visit with relatives.

The Good Will Book Club met with Mrs. J. S. Hilton Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. R. J. Sonner and daughter, Miss Mrs. Everett Fleming, are ill with flu this week.

Mrs. E. C. Williams returned Saturday night from a three weeks visit to Mrs. Ben Helvestine and family at Winnsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Helvestine were guests with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Williams Sunday.

The farm of the late Mrs. Mary Ann Clarke, containing 40 acres, was sold at public auction Saturday to Mr. Ben Helvestine, being the purchaser at $4625 per acre.

Paul Courtney, aged four years, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Courtney, Friday morning at 8 o'clock after a short illness of pneumonia. The little boy is survived by his parents, one brother and a large number of relatives and friends. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home and burial in the Ewing cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful and many, showing the love of a large circle of friends.

J. M. Jones have been Saturday for Lexington, Mrs. Jones is getting along nicely at present.

THE BRYSON FARM AGENCY

Mighty and necessary to be of a home, boy, beautiful home is good for every purpose. It's weather gets us to it. 24 acres, level as a floor 2 miles of Carlisle, 7 room house, outbuildings, splendid barn, good water, $6000.00 but just now a quick sale is necessary, $5000.00 cash. Come and see me, let's talk.

Be it that I can sell the prettiest little 10-acre home south of Carlisle for about $2000.44; good house, 5 rooms and bath, good pike, and 2½ miles of Carlisle, $2000.44 cash.

Farms and a raiser large one, consider this and 5 room frame residence, 6 acres, $6472 feet; fine orchard, good water, $4000.00 cash. Come see me, let's talk.

Be