COMMENTS
With this issue the Mercury celebrates its thirty-third year of existence. It has grown from a small paper to a substantial one, and it has been a constant source of information and news to the community.

NEW COUNTY ASSUMES CHARGE OF CITY AFFAIRS
Mayor P. H. Darnell and Council have taken over the city's affairs from the county. This move is expected to bring about more efficient management of the city's business.

1921 ASSESSMENT SHOWS DECREASE FROM LAST YEAR
The county assessor has reported that the total amount of taxes collected in 1921 was less than in the previous year. This is due to a variety of factors, including a decrease in the number of taxable properties.

81 INTERMENTS IN LOCAL CEMETERY DURING 1921
The local cemetery has recorded 81 interments during the year 1921. This is a decrease from the 95 interments recorded in 1920.

CHURCH RELIEF FUND TO BE ESTABLISHED SOON
The church has decided to establish a relief fund to assist the poor and needy members of the congregation. This fund will be used to provide food, clothing, and other necessities.

CARLISLE MAY LOSE CITY MAIL DELIVERY SERVICE
The post office has announced that it may discontinue the city mail delivery service in Carlisle. This would mean that mail would have to be picked up by the residents.

CITY'S FIRST MARKET HOUSE BUILT IN 1820
The city's first market house was built in 1820. It was a simple wooden structure that served the community for many years. It was eventually replaced by a more modern building.

Christmas Wedding Bells
BY MARY GRAYSON MORRIS

It is a beautiful thing to see a young man and woman standing together in the snow, their faces glowing with the joy of the season. The wedding bells are ringing, and the hearts are full of love and hope for the future.
