PLEASANT VALLEY

Eufus Vaught, aged 52, foreman of a gang of men, was walking in a tunnel near Breen, Ky., Monday, Jan. 19, when a stone fell from the roof striking Mr. Vaughn on the back of the head and instantly killing him. The stone measured six feet long, three feet wide and eighteen inches thick. The body was prepared for burial and sent to his home at Cowan Tuesday morning. Funeral services were conducted by Brother Hammonds. Burial took place in Blantville Cemetery. He leaves a wife and two children, Christine and Roy, one brother, Albert Vaughn, of Pleasant Valley, and a host of friends to mourn his loss. About three weeks ago Mrs. Vaughn, his wife, was on a hand car going to Breen when a light engine struck the car and she was seriously injured. Mr. Vaughn was employed by the L. & N. railroad for a number of years. He was a member of Pleasant Valley Lodge, F. & A. M., No. 585. In sympathy for his fellow workmen respectfully him with two lovely bunches of flowers.

God knew all about it how noble,
How gentle he was and how brave,
So he sent his beautiful Future
Yet put him to sleep in his grave
God knew how much better than we loved him
How better their trial must be
And right through it all he is living
And knows so much better than we
So in the deep darkness we're trusting
One day we shall say it was well
God took from his young brow earth's laurels,
And crowned him with death's immortelles.

LYRIC THEATRE

The streets of Carlisle have been a veritable mass of ice this week, and travel has been difficult.

Mathers, Potts & Co. are having a steam heating system installed in their undertaking establishment.

Carlisle is afected with an epidemic of colds this week, many of the residents being confined to their homes suffering with the malady.

From the number of loads of tobacco arriving in Carlisle Wednesday all of the floors of the various warehouses will be full for the next sale.

Several farmers in the county have signified their intention of holding their low grade tobacco off the market and using it for fertilizer.

On account of a dispute between two of the warehouses of Carlisle one was Monday as to which house would sell tobacco, no sales were held.

The price cutting wave has reached Carlisle. Merchants in all lines are reducing their wares, as will be seen by reading the columns of The Mercury this week.

Hezely S. Myers has been elected chairman for Nicholas county in the permanent organization established at Lexington to cut out the 1921 crop of tobacco.

S. W. Willett was able to resume his duties as carrier on rural route No. 1 day after having been confined to his home for a week with a deep cold. Warren Hillock served the route during Mr. Willett's illness.

February 22, Washington's birthday, a big Shower's ceremonial will be held at Lexington. About 100 carloads will be initiated, several of them from this county. A large crowd of Shriners from here will attend the ceremonial.

J. C. Vanarsdell qualified in county court Wednesday as administrator of the estate of Garret Givin, deceased, with G. Elgin Sharp surety in the sum of $2,500. Walter Sharp, C. E. Sharp and O. B. Knight were appointed appraisers of the estate.

The following prices were quoted for produce by the Nicholas Produce Company Wednesday morning: Eggs, No. 1s, 30c; No. 2s, 25c; roosters, 10c; springers, 19c lb.; turkeys, 25c lb.; ducks, 20c lb.; geese, 12c lb.; butter, packer's stock, 12c lb.; hides, 5c lb.

The Carlisle high school boys basket ball team defeated the M. H. I. boys at Millersburg last Saturday night by a score of 25 to 17. The Carlisle High boys and girls team will go to Millersburg to play the return two county high school Friday night, Jan. 21.

February 1 is the final date to pay annual dues in the Home and Farm. After that date all names will be dropped from the list and the policy discontinued. Send in your dues, $1.00, to Omer Berry, Secretary, or Grimes Caywood, finance officer, at once.

Mr. E. T. Flora, of this city, received official notification from Grand Master Morrow Tuesday of his appointment as Magistrate in this district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Squire E. Metcalfe. Mr. Flora presented his commission and qualified Wednesday. He has served as magistrate in the second district and made a capable official.

Effective February 1, there will be a slight change in routes 2 and 3 out of Carlisle. Route 2 will be extended as far as to reach the pastures along the Locust Grove pike to the Wright school house, and route 1 will be extended so as to cover all of the territory between the railroad crossing at Myers to the old Locust Grove road along the Carlisle and Parks Ferry pike.

Fire, which it is supposed originated from a defective kitchen flue, caused considerable damage to the residence of Mr. W. M. Mathers and son, A. M. Mathers and family about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. The blaze was first discovered in the top of the roof of the house. The fire department quickly responded to the alarm and soon had the fire under control. The entire roof was destroyed and the ceiling of the rooms in the upper story were scorched. Water caused considerable damage, and several of the rooms will have to be plastered and papered.

MARRIAGES

MANN—ELAM — Guy Cynthia Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mann, of this county, and Mr. Granville Elam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allie Elam, of Mount county, were married at the residence of and by Rev. Frank Wolfe in this city last Friday afternoon. The bride is an attractive young lady and the groom is an electrician.

FEATHER-EVANS—A wedding which came as a pleasant surprise to many friends in this city and county was quietly solemnized at the Methodist parsonage in this city Thursday evening when Miss Gertrude Feather became the bride of Mr. J. Hunter Evans, Rev. W. B. Chandler performing the ceremony. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Feather and is an accomplished young business woman. For the past four or five years she has conducted a millinery store in this city and by her charming personality and expert workmanship has established a lucrative business. Prior to engaging in the millinery business she taught in the county schools and is well known and popular with a host of friends. Mr. Evans for the past year has been bookkeeper at the First National Bank in this city and is a young man of sterling qualities and business acumen. For several years he was a bookkeeper for the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. and was stationed here several seasons. He is a native of Higginsport, Ohio. During his residence here he has made many warm friends. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Evans will make their home with the bride's parents in this city. The Mercury joins their many friends in extending congratulations.
