OBITUARY

In loving memory of Harrison Hughes, who passed away Feb. 22, 1921, at the age of 76 years, at his home in Black's Cross Roads, after an illness of three weeks of typhoid fever and ketin poison.

Everything that loving hands that both his children and neighbors could do, was done in an effort to save his life, but God, who doeth all things well, thought best to call his servant home.

In out of grief and sadness, we weep or why our loved one was taken, a happy home broken up, a dear child, who was the idol of his father's heart, a faithful husband, a kind neighbor and patience and many disposition always remained the same to the day of his life. Why, oh why, can we not look beyond the veil and see why our loss must; each day grows more or and more dreary, for without his presence the world seems empty and cheerless, and in our heart there is a longing aching void. The only consolation is in the sweet realization that our beloved is now in the land of rest, the weary are at rest," and her heart is still, and we can hear the voice say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep;
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.
Asleep in Jesus! Far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.

PROGRAM

Tonight—Thursday—Comer Alma Hanken in "The Sins of the Children." Can you tell why the sins fall upon the children? Is it because they are born in debt making conquests of the parents, others say it is too much society and living too fast before the children. We had the pleasure of seeing this picture and we can truly say know it to be a good one, it is worth your while to come and see it.

FRIDAY—"Lost Only Child," a good comedy drama with Jack Pickford.

SATURDAY—Mary Pickford in pictures on the screen today, and it always has been and always will be. She is the author, Richard Harding Davis, his masterpiece, "DOLLY DOLLY DO TUNE." If it is action you like, this picture is full of it from start to finish, and we will also run a Harold Lloyd comedy, "Bumping Into Broadway." Laugh or cry, but see Comer.

MONDAY—Comer Miller featured in "On Testing Block." This is some western, and if you want to see a cracker-jack don't miss this one, this is not Mr. Hart's latest picture but it is a good picture, and it is worth the money you put in it.

TUESDAY—Elaine Hammerstein in "The Heiress Decides." Now if you want to see a good picture, see this one.

WEDNESDAY—Edwin Carewe presents "The Husband Hunter," a light comedy drama featuring Ethel Clayton and Jack Mulhall.
