MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kernels Culled From Events of Moment in All Parts of the World—Of Interest to All the People Everywhere.

Washington

Senator La Follette, at Washington, announced in a speech the completion of the installation of former Representative Jack Reed of Wyoming for interstate commerce commissioner progressed again.

• • •

Congress will be called into special session Monday, April 17, Senator Lodge announced at the White House conference.

• • •

Deposits in United States postal savings banks during February totaled more than $10,000,000, bringing the grand total, March 1, to $103,350,000, it was announced at Washington.

• • •

Fred Morris, bowling of Missouri" was nominated to be assistant secretary of state.

• • •

Senators at Washington fighting the Colombian treaty gave out a list of American oil companies, including the Standard and Sinclair interests, standing to be benefit from the $25,000,000 section of Colombia, which once threatened to nullify their holdings. Senator Borah said some of this concession in Colombia are already contingent on the American donation.

• • •

President Harding at Washington requested Chairman Hurley of the shipping board "to continue to function through the board were fully organized."

• • •

At the direction of President Harding at Washington, Secretary Davis telegraphed the governors and the parking house mission to request troops and representatives for each side to assist the commission in the work of investigation of the wage and hour controversy with coal operators.

• • •

"Conclusions of satisfactory business and financial conditions in Europe, Asia, and Africa" are to be digested in monthly rushes received at Washington from consular, diplomatic and trade commissioners.

• • •

Production of bituminous coal in February, 1923, will be greater on record. The total output, according to figures made public by the geological survey at Washington was 90,000,000 tons.

• • •

The charges that men were rushed and have retarded the policy of all the railroads in the country is unwarranted in a telegram sent from Chicago to Washington.

• • •

No American rights have been surrendered by the war and none will be, it was declared by the state department at Washington.

• • •

Attaches Parks, known as anarchist was arrested and, according to the police at Madrid, confessed to the assassination of Premier Dato. He gave his address as Chicago.

• • •

The charges that men were rushed and have retarded the policy of all the railroads in the country is unwarranted in a telegram sent from Chicago to Washington.

• • •

Former Representative John Kench of Wisconsin and Mark W. Potter of New York were nominated by President Harding to be members of the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington.

• • •

Thomas G. Morris of Mississippi, Perle was nominated at Washington to be a member of the tariff commission, and William C. Culbertson of Kansas was renominated as a member of that commission.

• • •

President Harding at Washington has decided to send Myron T. Herrick back to his old post as ambassador to France. Mr. Herrick is a Cleveland man who labored diligently for Harding's nomination.

• • •

American troops on the Rhine are "standing pat," Secretary Weeks said, and a military attitude as to the Ruhr situation was expressed at the State department at Washington.

Domestic

George Washington Knight, negro, twenty-two, confessed the murder of Mrs. Edith Wilson, church organist, who was found dead in her home in Forth Ansley, N. J., Saturday night, according to police.

• • •

Miss Blanche Howard, Allentown, daughter of Arthur Howard, was killed when an automobile plunged off a bridge near Leroy, in

• • •

The Eighth Street Department Farmers' Market at Cincinnati, O., was named in honor of the late Herman Bruestle, for 30 years a member of the market board.

• • •

A blast of fuse at Clements Mark's mine at Duquoin, Ill., killed three men of the former home of the author of Hurlbut's "The Pedestal" was found in the river.

• • •

The electrical workers' worker has discovered a new use for electricity that three drops will kill anyone whom they touch. The discovery was made in New York.

• • •

David H. Mosier, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, was elected president of the Lincoln Memorial association.

• • •

It was announced at the Lincoln Memorial association at Washington that the Lincoln memorial will be dedicated on the 115th anniversary of the birth of the martyr president, February 12, 1924, the date set by congress.

• • •

Mrs. James Warren, wife of a prominent resident of the Big Horn basin, near Lovell, Wyo., was shot and killed by two robbers, who entered her home at night.

• • •

Joseph Fortescue, twenty-six years old, of Chicago and a student at the University of Missouri, was killed at Dallas, Tex., when struck by a passing automobile as he was walking. He was alighting.

• • •

Governor Hart at Olympia, Wash., has signed the anti-alien land bill which prohibits aliens ineligible to citizenship from owning or leasing land in the state and forbids any trust to hold such land.

• • •

The worst of the influenza epidemic is over, Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, said in Detroit. He declared that business was improving steadily.

• • •

No American rights have been surrendered by the war and none will be, it was declared by the state department at Washington.

• • •

Attaches Parks, known as anarchist was arrested and, according to the police at Madrid, confessed to the assassination of Premier Dato. He gave his address as Chicago.

• • •

The Stockholm Aftonbladets Riga correspondent says that from 18 to 20 Bolshevik divisions, with artillery and cavalry, are massing in the frontier against Poland in the districts of Dunaburg, Vitebsk and Orsha.

• • •

The bestowal is announced at Copenhagen of Princess Margarete, daughter of Prince Axel of Denmark, on Prince and Prince Rene of Bourbon-Parma, heir to the throne of Austria.

• • •

At the Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Madrid states that Premier Dato of Spain was assassinated Saturday night. He was shot as he was leaving the halls of congress.

• • •

Leon Trotsky has offered a reward for the capture, dead or alive, of the body guard or allies, of General Wrangel, who has issued a proclamation offering $100,000 for Trotsky's body, dead or alive.

• • •

Edward Caige, publisher, mission to Greece, retired from his post at Athens.

• • •

Paris hotels, restaurants and cafes officially allowed to serve meals at 11 o'clock instead of midnight, but the last food restrictions having been thus removed.

• • •

The Imperial Japanese Consuls of the world will both be reactivated at Washington, Ambassador Hanihara announced. Shortly, except general number of the consuls.

• • •

A foreign army was ordered by the tariff board to an unknown port at an unknown time, it was announced at Washington. The board refused to disclose the name of the port