BALD HILL

To the members of the Bald Hill church scattered over the world: Owing to the depletion in the funds of the ministerial interest, Bald Hill could secure only a beginner, but one who promises well. He has come to us and will preach at the second Sunday in June instead of April, as ministers have to be here at work and why not be present at the fact of starting one? To the people of the church: you have to be ministered to? Should they neglect to be present through no unavoidable cause it will be interesting to watch a young father and mother in Israel. Come and help them. Come a prayer on Sunday morning, a former minister has, because of the Lord, said he had a hand in helping him along? We are behind in our yearly contributions, rather, those of the above, come help with your presence your encouragement and your subscriptions. Many of the former members have moved away. Those who have built the Bald Hill church. Better be in coming in next week preferable. Watch the Mercury for the announcement, for he will preach when he comes.
