ALL DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES VICTORIOUS BY SAFE MAJORITIES IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION

Paul Darnall, Mayor, And D. M. Curry, A. S. Kimbrough, J. M. Fuller, M. T. Ruddell, L. W. Clark and Perry McClanahan Will Be New Council

BOTH AMENDMENTS DEFEATED NEARLY FOUR TO ONE

Wolfe all of the Democratic nominees for county offices in Nicholas were elected Tuesday by handsome majorities, the Democratic majority was not considerably by failure of Democrats to come to the polls. Practically no interest was taken in the election in the country, and but few people in town stayed away from the polls. Democratic nominees for city offices were further rebuked.

The closest contest was between A. S. Kimbrough, Democratic nominee for County Judge, and H. S. Weaver, the Republican nominee, which resulted in Kimbrough's election, which by the Democrats was a safe Democratic majority, gave Mr. Weaver a majority of 66, which cut Mr. Tilton's majority down considerably. James F. Gaumer, the Democratic nominee for Sheriff, had a big majority over Ed Hamilton, the Republican nominee, by 1,000 votes.

There were only two Republican nominees for County offices, H. S. Weaver for County Judge and Leonard Howard for Sheriff in two Republican counties, which resulted as above.

The falling off of the Democratic majority, which at the Presidential election was almost 1400, casts no reflection upon the strength of the Democratic party, but is purely the will, and choice of the voters, and the fact that the Republicans voted solidly.

In second magisterial district S. J. Eldridge, Democratic nominee for Magistrate, defeated his Republican opponent, A. E. Barnhart, by a majority of 30 votes. In the Fourth magisterial district Ed Hall, Democratic nominee for Magistrate, defeated E. T. Flora, Republican nominee, by a majority of 121 votes. In the First district, F. M. Bishop, Democrat, won without opposition. In the Third district, R. B. Harding, Democrat, was elected unopposed. In the Fifth district the next fiscal court will be composed entirely of Democrats.

James F. Gaumer Democratic candidate for Sheriff, led the ticket with 1,000 votes.

In the election for members of the county board of education, in which there were three applicants, J. M. McClary and L. H. Small were elected. Mrs. Minnie Davis, Democrat, was defeated by Paul Darnall for Mayor, by a majority of 131 votes. Democratic members were beaten in the county by large majorities. On the first amendment the majority was 540 against the amendment, and on the second the majority was 508 against. A light vote was cast on the amendments. Reports from over the State indicate that both were defeated.

The race for Mayor and Councilmen in Carlisle created no little interest, and the voters brought out a large vote. The entire ticket was headed by Paul Darnall for Mayor, who was over the Republican ticket, headed by R. N. Brock for Mayor, with a majority of 131 votes. The entire ticket headed by Perry McClanahan. Mr. McClanahan was the only candidate on the Republican ticket elected.

D. M. Curry received the largest vote of any candidate on either ticket.
