

CLAN CALL

by Hapsburg Liebe

CHAPTER XI—Continued

Zed Marched toward the lake, and reached a point where he saw a man standing by the water's edge. The man was dressed in a dark suit and a hat, and he was looking toward the boat. Zed stopped for a moment, and then he stepped forward and spoke to the man.

"What do you want of me?" the man asked, looking at Zed with a cold, hard stare.

Zed looked at the man for a moment, and then he spoke again.

"I want to know who you are," Zed said, "and what you are doing here."

The man looked at Zed for a moment, and then he spoke.

"I am a man of business," the man said, "and I am here on a matter of importance."

Zed looked at the man for a moment, and then he spoke.

"I will see you again," Zed said, "and we will talk more fully."

The man looked at Zed for a moment, and then he spoke.
