Happenings of the World Tersely Told

Washington

Funds making possible the employment of from 300,000 to 350,000 men for one road building season are appropriated by the federal highway bill, at present in conference and expected to pass congress at Washington within the next few days.

A bronze memorial tablet to commemorate the heroes and nurses that died during the World war was exercised in the State, War and Navy department building at Washington by the American Red Star Animal Relief.

The government is prepared to man and run the railroads if the nation should become involved in war, the chief executive's transportation system, this information was given out to accept their invitation to attend the meeting of the league's executive council in San Francisco next June.

The United States Grain Growers Inc., was formed at Washington, with headquarters in Chicago, to handle the entire crop of the country's activities during the World war and after.

Governmental activities of the nation halted while its leaders, headed by President, attended funeral services for Senator Knox of Pennsylvania at Washington.

Neither commercial prices nor wage rates can be maintained above the natural economic level according to a statement issued by the engineer members of a special building conference on unemployment at Washington, which attributed Labor union leaders' minority report flatly opposes any general plan of wage reductions.

Prohibition Director Haynes at Washington, in a notice of forfeiture, declared that 1,000 stills had been seized throughout the country since March.

Executive orders excepting the houses owned by the United States shipping board from the act, was ordered stopped by Chairman Lasker at Washington.

House Republicans at a caucus in Washington decided to support the Borgei bill to increase the size of the house from 435 to 460 members.

Without a dissenting vote, the senate at Washington struck from the tax revision bill the section imposing a tax of $1 a ton on coal and 25 cents a ton on fuel for the transportation of parcel post packages, the section to be effective next January 1.

Domestic

Practically every independent steel company in the Youngstown (O.) district followed the lead of the United Hill Steel company and increased steel prices $1 a ton.

One man was killed and two others mortally injured on the Dixie highway near Hamilton, Ohio, when their automobile struck a road repair machine and turned turtle.

Union leaders at Buffalo, N. Y., say that one refused to allow Italian laborers to enter the country in order for a native born worker to be employed, the Toledo Times was owned by Henry Ford.

Anarchia, a daily morning German newspaper at Chicago, which was founded in 1872, will be "put to bed" for the last time October 31. The nonprofit issue of the paper will become weekly.

The Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which opened with a two days' missionary meeting at Pittsburgh, Pa., will consider plans for the extension of support of the $60,000 church edifice.

Assets valued at $7,000,000 were turned over to the Central Trust company at Chicago for the benefit of the Harrison Operating company of Harrison, Ill., by the subsidiary companies.

Twelve Nolan county farmers were arrested and 3,200 gallons of mash 300 gallons of moonshine and 20 stills and other paraphernalia were seized by federal agents in eight raids near Worthington, Minn.

Marion McAdrie, twenty-year-old brother of Mrs. Catherine Kaiser, was held guilty of complicity in the murder of Daniel Kaiser, her stepfather, by a jury at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Bonners that the government is framing drastic financial legislation, involving temporary stoppage of payment by the banks on account of the liquidation of safety deposits, caused a heavy run at Vienna.

Prime Minister Lloyd George is preparing to go to Washington to attend the impending conference on limitation of armaments and Far Eastern questions, and it is understood at London, that, unless unforeseen difficulties arise, he will be there for the opening session.

Tea Aprons.

Fancy tea aprons can be made from handkerchiefs and skirts. Take the bottom part of the back, cut off half-way; you can use the fronts for a ruffle to go around the bottom; have it about 10 inches wide. Make a belt of the sleeves will make the belt and strings.

Tape Stays Scallops.

Often after much time and work have been spent in scalloping the edges of baby underwear it will tear through the scallops almost with the sewing. Those who find this to be the case try sewing a piece of narrow tape just below the scallops and then cutting the tape in the scallops. This helps the wearing qualities of the garment, and if care is taken in cutting the tape the stitches will scarcely be noticed on the right side.

Chiffon Alpaca Sweaters.

Slip-on chiffon alpaca sweaters with the Jenny neckline and flat collar are worn.

The Union states ory army, which crossed up New York city, is now operating in Pennsylvania, and is going to map up Chicago. The traveling army is due there in two weeks.

Princess Lind, sixty-five years old, and his daughter, Miss Nellie Lind, twenty-four, a school teacher, were found murdered at their home four miles from Hudson, Ind.

The 3,000 employees of the "big five" packers at East St. Louis, Ill., favor a strike against the "American plan" of employment, recently made famous. The leaders were said in Chicago.

A bond issue of $475,000 for street improvement and construction of gullies in Settle has been floated by the city of Davenport, Ia. The unemployed have registered at the city hall for that work.

Damage estimated at more than $1,500,000 was caused by a fire at the Charleston street terminals in Charleston, S. C.

Frank Green killed his wife and himself with a revolver in their home, near Silver Hill, Md., a steamboat and railway lawyer anchored at the refinery of Standard Oil company.

Harrison M. Parker, head of the Colgate company factory at Jersey, turned over $2,250,000 of the securities, the "birthday" assets of the company, to the securities company, fiscal agent for the society at Chicago.

A government urging that the state prohibition act be repealed immediately by the legislature was handed down by the Brown county grand jury at New York.

Two enlisted men were killed and three seriously injured when a United States army truck overturned at Camp Jackson in Camp Knotts, Va., a forest fire destroyed more than 1,000 acres of timber on Mount Rogers, near Bonsack, Va., and probably will reach the valley of the Roanoke river before it left the flying station. All were saved.

Personal

Charles Hartland Merkel, noted philanthropist, died at his home at Bedford.

In the brief sunlight of a rainless afternoon United States Senator Philander C. Knox was laid to rest in Valley Forge Memorial cemetery at Valley Forge, Pa.

Sporting

This war's world's baseball championship has gone to the Giants. It was won it when they defeated the Yankees, 1 to 0, in the eighth game of the series at New York.

Foreign

Two advance representatives of the trade mission which the Far East-ern republic of Siberia intends to send to the United States left Peking Saturday for Washington.

A Manitoba government bond issue of $1,000,000 was sold at 106.71, the highest price paid in Canada this year for government bonds. The bonds run for 20 years at 6 per cent, yield 5.50 per cent.

Trotzo has succeeded in securing the release of two more of the 14 men that are refused to allow Japan, it is learned from reliable sources here. The two would receive on November 1.

Many Persians have been killed and wounded by the bombs which are the result, according to advices received at Teheran, An American, Bankhead, a member of the United States mission, is also reported assassinated.

China will battle at the disarmament conference in Washington to shake off the domination of her economic system by other powers, it was announced at Shanghai by Feng Hsin Huang, who is here to arrange details.

Many persons have been killed or injured in the wreck of a mail train near Moulin, Spain. The train was derailed by a bomb set on the track by heavy rains and a land slip and a passenger coach were destroyed.

Marion McAdrie, twenty-year-old brother of Mrs. Catherine Kaiser, was held guilty of complicity in the murder of Daniel Kaiser, her stepfather, by a jury at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Harrison M. Parker, head of the Colgate company factory at Jersey, turned over $2,250,000 of the securities, the "birthday" assets of the company, to the securities company, fiscal agent for the society at Chicago.

Bowling Green—John C. Crofton, for forty-eight years a passenger engineer between Bowling Green and Etna, Tenn., has been retired by the Louisville and Nashville railroad company on a pension. During this long period he has never met with an accident.

Newport—Newport city commissioners repealed the ordinance for the placing on the ballot at the November election the proposition to annex Clifton, Ky. Commissioner Chris Ehert said annexation of Clifton would mean an extra burden to Newport.

Frankfort—Whiskey in bonded warehouses was assessed at $30 a barrel by the State Tax Commission. The assessment is $6 more on the barrel than the 1920 assessment and just one-half of the tentative assessment made by the commission, which was $120 a barrel.

Jackson—Steps will be taken before January 1 to provide a pension fund for disabled and retired members of the police and fire departments, it was announced at a meeting of the Board of City Commissioners. An ordinance will probably be passed by the Police and Board in time to become effective by the first of the year.

Paducah—With an enrollment of 400 students, the new Lone Oak Consolidated High School began its session for the 1921-22 semester. The present registration was the largest in the history of the Paducah High School and increased the total of enrollment to 1,600. Every county school showed a substantial gain over the enrollment of last year.

Frankfort—Records of savings in Kentucky, together with the entire list of officers of the banks, will be turned over to the office of the Secretary of State here on the first Monday in November, it was announced by Fred J. Beutler, in preparing a book for the ready reference of anyone who wishes information as to the vote of any office required to be published by the secretary of state.

Somerset—Business men of Somerset are studying the question of what they can do with the old city hall, recently vacated by the C. N. O. and T. P. building, from Danville to this city. In a recent letter from J. G. Sherman, of the engineers, N. C. Rogers, of the brakeman, J. M. Civil, of the conductors, the Somerset Chamber of Commerce has been asked to make inquiry in the matter of probable rentals, cost, clothing etc., and could be advised what the most suitable use would be.

Louisville—Flooding woods five miles from an outlying section of Louisville on Silver Creek, the mouth of which empties into the Ohio River at one of the most dangerous bends in the river, the Louisville Fuel hearing cast, driven by William H. Fredrick, 24, 2731 Rose Avenue, struck, and completely fire other passengers escaped injury. The car was burning two men. The accident occurred on the Louisville & Eastern railroad shortly after 5 o'clock.

Louisville—Mrs Cora Roberts and her son, Maurice Roberts, and J. Barclay, all of 317 East Jefferson street, were run about the face and hands by flying glass when the automobile in which they were riding collided with a Second street car at Third and Jefferson streets. Starting was different, the machine toward the car, but when he attempted to swing out to the left to pass the car, he found himself headed for the tracks. The car was moving slowly and the motorman could not avoid the crash. Mrs. Roberts suffered a broken nose and bruises, and her son received bruises on the face and hands.

Louisville—Drinking poison in a bottle of soda pop, Adelbert M. Odekirk, 30 years old, committed suicide in his home at seven hours dying in the hospital. Odekirk had been employed as a salesman for the past two years at $ per week, according to friends, and he had been employed prior to that time. He left a note to his son, Jos M. Odekirk, which was found in his pocket, but failed to indicate and his act trouble, a friend said yesterday. Odekirk had been married about two years.

Louisville—Hearing of the case of Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, charged with murder of her husband, Lee Adams, in continuation of the case against John Adams, Louisville and Nashville railroad detective, and Sandy Hook, colored, both struck the machine which rushed to the scene of the killing, and in which the automobile squarely and the occupants were thrown to the ground. The accident happened at the Poor-street crossing. Members of the train crew and the train was traveling at nearly forty miles an hour when the engineer attempted to stop in time to prevent the accident, but he only got a glimpse of the Adams' car a moment before the impact.

Frankfort—Receipts of the state tax department for the month of October, the first month in which the new state tax law was in effect, were $1,000,000 more than the receipts for the corresponding month last year, according to a statement issued by Auditor Edwin P. Morrow. The receipts for October, 1921, were $2,500,000 as compared with $1,500,000 for the same month in 1920.

Frankfort—Governor Morrow appointed R. L. Holland justice of the peace of the Second District of Harrison County, to succeed J. O. Madden, deceased.

Frankfort—Revenues amounting to $8,681,920.05 will be collected by the sheriffs of the various counties of the state this fall on a total assessment of $1,012,245,000, according to estimates with an assessed valuation of $1,012,245,000, according to estimates with an assessed valuation of $1,012,245,000, according to estimates with an assessed valuation