MILLTOWN

Miss A. B. Gill spent one day the past week in Lexington.
The Maple Grove Public School visited the Lower Blue Licks school last Friday, September 9, and spent a very pleasant day. We arrived at 10 o'clock and had school together, after which we were treated to a watermelon feast, and everybody knew how to entertain. After that we went to the Blue Lick grounds and spent the afternoon, after which we went to the spring and viewed the old relics. We returned to the church and had preaching by Rev. Morris. Everybody here enjoyed the day.
