MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF WORLD

BIG HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK CUT TO LAST ANALYSIS

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN ITEMS

Kennels Culled From Events of Moment in All Parts of the World—Of Interest to All the People Everywhere.

Washington

Secretary Hoover's plan to curb profiteering is cool by formation of a presidential committee to supervise production and distribution is indorsed as legal by Attorney General Daugherty at Washington.

Approximately 600,000 of the railroad's coal miners are on strike and 185,000 still are at work, the Department of Labor at Washington announced in a survey of the coal mining industry.

Vice President Coolidge will leave Washington Friday, August 4, for Spokane to deliver an address before the Republican convention of the American Legion.

Shipping board vessel operations in June cost $2,782,202.39 in excess of revenues, announced Chairman Lasker, in a statement made public at Washington.

More than 21,000 stolen automobiles valued at over $2,500,000 have been recovered by the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice at Washington since the passage of the five anti-theft automobile laws in October, 1919.

The twin coal and rail strikes to date have caused a loss of 310,000,000 to workers, employers and American industry generally, according to best estimates at Washington.

Announcement was made by Postmaster General York at Washington that "any menace endangering the delivery of the mails arising out of the strike of railway shopmen had passed."

The nomination of James J. Wolfe, soon to be federal judge for the northern Illinois district, succeeding former Judge Landis, was confirmed by the senate at Washington.

Chief Justice White, at Washington, has received a note from the Washington Conference on Limitation of Armaments, suggesting the appointment of a committee to confer with a similar committee of the British Empire, France, Japan and Italy, which are making a world tour, in visiting Rio de Janeiro further, the only American port at which they are touching will be Santos.

With no prospect of an early resumption of mining, railroads and public utilities are now facing a fuel crisis are now devising their attention to the conservation of their supplies and the best means of using them.

Sale of beer and light wines by grocery stores would be one of the planks in Governor Edwards' platform in the campaign for United States senator, he announced at his second "governor's day" at Monticello, Ill.

Judge John H. Anderson, of Criminal court at Buckley, W. Va., was shot to death by a man he had fined $100 and $5 apiece, according to Saleda, county authorities, who held Mose Mc-Gowan under arrest.

Cavalry and machine gun troops of the Illinois National Guard have been ordered to the Minonk coal regions in western Illinois to furnish military service in the resumption of coal mining, by Governor Lennon at Harrisburg.

A Carlinville (Ill.) dispatch says that Macoupin county's share of the coming year in Illinois will be slightly increased as industry of contracting and being slighted by school boards through the state.

A finish fight in the railroad strike was seen at Chicago in the announcement that 80 big eastern roads had met in New York to organize "nonparty unions."

Five shortened properties of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, in Bonds Tex., and also the government Pennsylvania Railroad.

Resources of the 1,400 Illinois state banks were $2,062,226,918 on June 30, according to a statement by Auditor Andrew Russel at Springfield.

Edward Owens was killed in an explosion which wrecked a mixing unit of the Equitable Powder company at East Alton, Ill.

An aerial police service for 24 hours a day has been established at Venice, Cal. It is composed of three aviators, a policeman, ready for duty for eight hours.

Twin wedding rings, made from a meteorite, have been discovered by J. B. Kennett, director of the Institute of Canada's astrophysical observatory at Victoria, B. C.

Marketing of approximately 20,000,000 bushels of wheat this year is expected, say officials of the North Dakota Wheat Growers' association at Grand Forks.

Gov. Albert G. Brown at Manchester, N. H., ordered out National Guard troops for railroad strike duty at Concord.

Six persons were killed and two seriously hurt when a train struck their automobile at a crossing in Interseattle, Ore.

The Central of Georgia railroad, on account of the strike, declared an embargo on all dead freight consigned to it from the Southern railroad in Chattanooga, Tenn.

George O'Connor, motorcycle officer of the Oshkosh (Wis.) police department, died at a local hospital from injuries received when he was run over and dragged by an automobile in a collision.

Many American and British farmers have left Patagonia because of labor troubles and the activities of bandits, according to George E. Hunziker, who arrived at New Orleans from Rio Gallegos.

Frank A. Landon of Moline, Ill., judge of the Probate court and acting judge of the Rock Island County court, was drowned in Rock river when he plunged into a wife from a machine.

School authorities at Griswold, Ia., have given farmers permission to use their children in their high school buildings for threshing purposes. Many children have borrowed their fast model cars for harvesting.

Delmar Richman, eighteen, of Union Mills, was drowned in a pond near Laporte, Ind., when a boat in which he and Leo Canty of Chicago were rowing tipped over.

After a continuous fast of 40 days, Rev. William Sire, fifty years old, mountain evangelist, is dead at his home near Nado, Powell county, Kentucky. Starvation asserted, was at the request of God.

Allen A. Ryan of Allan A. Ryan & Co., bankers, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the Federal District court at New York. Liabilities were placed at $37,435,479 Nov assets at $643,653.

Fireman Robert Brewer was killed and Engineer Goodman of a Canadian Pacific train was severely scalded when the train ran into a moose overturning the locomotive, near Field on Thursday.

The estimate made last month by the state auditor of Illinois, of a 107,211,000 basket wheat production in Illinois, and a voluntary portion of the July crop report issued by the board at Springfield.

Personal

Dr. Simon N. Patten, for many years head of the department of finance and economy at the University of Pennsylvania, is dead at Philadelphia. He was born in Sandwich, Ill., and was educated at Northwestern.

Chief Justice Wm. Mrs. William Howard Taft, home from their visit to Europe, are spending up at their summer home near Murray Bay, Quebec.

Foreign

Parliament at Belgrade by a vote of 139 to 30 has ratified the loan of $10,000,000 negotiated with the United States.

The British government at London has received a note from the Washington Conference on Limitation of Armaments, the suppression of liquor running into the United States through Bermuda and the Bahamas.

Great Britain has ceased entirely to participate in conferences with any representatives of Soviet Russia, Premier Lloyd George declared in the house of commons at London.

Free State troops have captured Ballylongford, Ireland, it is said. The Free Staters now control a 20-mile front between Ballylongford and Limerick, says a Dublin dispatch.

A Manila dispatch says Persian officials have engaged in negotiations with the rich gold deposits of Surigao province, Mindanao, with a view to securing interest in a tract of 12,000,000 square meters in that region.

The city of Oxford, England, will be celebrated by the consecration of Cardinal Bourne, archbishop of Westminster, as bishop of Southwark.

Oil men paid more than 1,000,000 pesos (roughly $500,000) to the depleted treasury of Tamaulipas, Mexico, it is said. The money will be used in paying the state debt, a part of which the state pay is in arrears.

Final confirmation, when ordered for January probably will be had on through the action of a second session at Berlin which have passed resolutions in favor of the extension of President Ebert's term for two years.

The Irish Free Staters have taken possession of armored many armored cars, according to a Dublin dispatch.

American secret service men have been detailed to accompany many of the big year in Illinois will be slightly increased as industry of contracting and being slighted by school boards through the state.

A finish fight in the railroad strike was seen at Chicago in the announcement that 80 big eastern roads had met in New York to organize "nonparty unions."

Five shortened properties of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, in Bonds Tex., and also the government Pennsylvania Railroad.

Resources of the 1,400 Illinois state banks were $2,062,226,918 on June 30, according to a statement by Auditor Andrew Russel at Springfield.

Edward Owens was killed in an explosion which wrecked a mixing unit of the Equitable Powder company at East Alton, Ill.

An aerial police service for 24 hours a day has been established at Venice, Cal. It is composed of three aviators, a policeman, ready for duty for eight hours.

Twin wedding rings, made from a meteorite, have been discovered by J. B. Kennett, director of the Institute of Canada's astrophysical observatory at Victoria, B. C.

Marketing of approximately 20,000,000 bushels of wheat this year is expected, say officials of the North Dakota Wheat Growers' association at Grand Forks.

Gov. Albert G. Brown at Manchester, N. H., ordered out National Guard troops for railroad strike duty at Concord.

Six persons were killed and two seriously hurt when a train struck their automobile at a crossing in Interseattle, Ore.

Pocahontas in Bronze

POCAHONTAS SAVING CAPTAIN SMITH'S LIFE

POCAHONTAS GIVING CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH HIS LIFE

"SHE, NEXT UNDER GOD, WAS STILL THE INSTRUMENT TO PRESERVE THIS COLONIE"

By JOHN DICKINSON SHERMAN

Over three hundred years ago, more than 300 years ago, there was engraved in the pleasing sport of turning bald heads, a picture of a young girl, not more than seven years old and her father. Wahunsenacawh was head chief of the Algonquian Indian tribe of the Virginia. Backwards, a runner, came at full speed through the forest with a message for the chief. He turned the corner of the hut just as the little daughter of her chief brought her fastest band springs. The girl's flying feet met the runner in the chief, caught him of his self-control