SUGAR CREEK

Our school closed Friday and we were sorry to see it go, as we have had a fine school. We have had a good spirit with her. Her name is Mrs. Ella Hamilton. She has taught here for three years and we hope she will come back next year. Mrs. Hattie Bee had an attack of pneumonia, but she could have. We hope the children have had a good teacher as we have and appreciate her very much. We will miss her this year if they have not. We hope she will be with our school next year. Mrs. Taylor is a most faithful sweet Sup't if she elects to come.
