

LIFE'S LITTLE JESTS

POOH HEAD FOR HISTORY

"What was the best story of the week?" asked a young boy in the front row of the audience. "The one about the pooh head," he said. "That's a good one," said the audience. "I hope you will see it on the screen," he said.

MONOCLE

Mr. C. W. Jones was surprised to find a monocle in his pocket when he got up to go to the office. "Where did that come from?" he asked. "I don't know," said the janitor. "It was there when I came in this morning," he said.

Keynote Address

At the annual meeting of the Commercial Club, the keynote address was given by Mr. J. B. Smith. He said that the city was in a state of transition and that the people must be prepared to meet the challenges of the future.

Lighter Side of J. W. Service

In a lighter moment of his address, J. W. Service told a story about a man who had lost his keys. "I was looking for them for an hour," he said. "I finally found them under the door of a woman who was looking for her keys." "I hope you found your keys," he said.

Mr. Stewart's Day

Mr. Stewart was a very busy man. He had to go to the office, to the bank, to the store, and to the school. "I have no time for anything else," he said.

Mr. Stewart's Day (continued)

One day, Mr. Stewart was walking home from the office. He saw a woman who was carrying a very large bundle. "What is that?" he asked. "It's a bundle of clothes," she said.

Mr. Stewart's Day (continued)

Mr. Stewart was very interested in the woman's bundle. He thought it was a very interesting sight. "I wish I could see what is in it," he said.

Mr. Stewart's Day (continued)

Mr. Stewart was very curious. He decided to go home and see what was in the bundle. "I'll see what I can find out," he said.
