Important News Events of the World Summarized

Washington

Railroad executives at Washington planned a conciliatory if seven hundred fund bill to re-operate with the interstate commerce commission at the President's request in an effort to restore freight rates.

• • •

Senator Norris (Rep., Neb.) appealed for a new tariff measure drafted on a nonpartisan basis. His action grew out of the insurgent movement among Republican senators at Washington.

• • •

By a vote of 200 to 18, the house at Washington passed the rivers and harbors improvement bill, providing for 20 million dollars, modification of five existing projects.

• • •

An offer of $2,500,000 for the Cooper power plant, the government's interest in the railroad and the transmission line from Gorgas to Muscle Shoals, Ala., has been made to Secretary Weeks at Washington by the Alabama Power company.

• • •

President Harding met at a dinner to railroad executives of the country at Washington and urged upon them the importance to business revival of a reduction of railroad freight rates below the level the interstate commerce commission feels to be justified by the new low operating reasonable success.

• • •

Senator Caraway (Ark.) declared in the senate that government ownership of railroads should resign, and submit to government ownership and declared he would oppose the attorney general's connection with the railroads. Following the charges W. Morse Jordan case in 1921.

• • •

Capt. John D. Benner was sworn in as Federal Prohibition Director for Virginia, to be third naval commander and chief of the Navy department, and repair of the Navy department's fleet of war vessels.

• • •

Railroad presidents of the country agreed with President Harding at Washington to do their best to help him to bring about voluntary railroad freight rate reductions, particularly on basic commodities.

• • •

More than $1,000,000 worth of liquor was seized during the last week by the recently organized federal agents' prohibition forces operating in various districts throughout the country, Commissioner Haynes at Washington announced.

• • •

A serious obstacle in spring lambs, which also means a similar setback in wool, was reported by the Department of Agriculture at Washington.

• • •

Acting on President Harding's plea, leading officials of steel corporations took action at Washington looking to measures to abolish the twelve-hour workday.

• • •

Restoration of the fuel administration, in modified form, was agreed upon by 50 operators, representing three-quarters of the bituminous coal tonnage at a conference with Secretary of Commerce Hoover at Washington.

• • •

Prohibition Commissioner Haynes plans a visit to Milwaukee next Wednesday to study the situation there and confer with State Prohibition Director Nelson, it was announced at Washington.

• • •

Domestic

The engineer and fireman of Missouri, Kansas & Texas passenger train No. 3 were killed in a wreck near Ynita, it was announced at Tulsa, Okla., by division headquarters at Muskogee, Okla.

• • •

Walter S. Ward, son of George S. Ward, well-known baker, surrendered to Sheriff Hall at Jersey City, N. J., and confessed that he shot and killed Clarence Lowery of Haverhill, Mass.

• • •

The city of Detroit, Mich., formally opened its new municipal airport, which covers within the city limits, becoming one of the first municipalities to acquire and erect a military airport in the United States.

• • •

The grazers of 40,000 American soldiers, who fought overseas in the first part of the American Legion fighting forces, was adopted unanimously at a closing meeting of the political committee of the national executive committee at Detroit.

• • •

By a vote of 29 to 4, the committee on the privileges of the house of lords at London decided that Lady Rhondda's petition to sit in the house of lords had "not been made out."

• • •

The Polish diet at Warsaw has enacted a law requiring an annual vaccination of two weeks with pay for all industrial workers.

• • •

Michael Collins and Eamon de Valera, leaders on an agreement for peace in Ireland, says a London dispatch.

• • •

A Paris dispatch says that the British steamship Egypt of the Peninsular & Oriental line, London to Bombay was sunk with heavy loss of life. It collided in a dense fog with the French freighter Seine off the coast of Brittany, and sank within sight of the coast and the port of Brest. The Egypt carried 296 persons, of whom only 102 are so far as "news were received.

• • •

Four men, all of them Catholics, were executed by the Irish government for participating in the Irish civil war and the formation of a coalition cabinet was reached by the leaders of the two political factions at Dublin.

• • •

King Boris and the government of Bulgaria have decided to grant the demands resulted, according to Sofia advices.

• • •

The Shantung agreement negotiated with China at the Washington conference has been ratified at Tokyo by Japan.

• • •

Gen. Gregory Semenoff, former ataman of Cossacks, was ordered released from arrest by a ruling of the Appellate court at New York, which overruled the decision of Justice Delehanty.

• • •

Damage estimated at approximately $10,000 was caused to the National Biscuit company's plant at Webster City, Ia., by a fire which followed an explosion in the packing department.

• • •

While on his way to the Lawndale State bank at Chicago James Hanley, assistant cashier of the Boulder City Building company, was held up and robbed of $17,750 by three men.

• • •

The Women's Missionary union conferred $7,000,000 to the general work of the Southern Baptist convention, the last 12 months, as against $30,000 received in 1888, it was announced at Jacksonville, Fla.

• • •

Charles Atkins, a negro, eighteen years old, one of four taken into custody in connection with the killing of Mrs. Elizabeth Kitchens, twenty years old, was burned at the stake at Duvidsore, Ga.

• • •

A plot to assassinate Bebe Daniels, motion picture star, was thwarted by the arrest of a drug-crazed man in the dressing room of the Daniels home in Los Angeles, Cal. The man gave his name as Eugene Jones.

• • •

Three San Francisco policemen were ordered discharged and a fourth was reprimanded because of alleged connection as an attempt to rob a bonded warehouse of $250,000 worth of liquor.

• • •

Rain—for 17 days for thirty-one days a pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Jacksonville, Fla., has tested moderator of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America at Des Moines, Ia.

• • •

Investigation of the marriages of Frank Mayo and of Henry B. Walthall, motion picture actors, is under way in the office of the district attorney at Los Angeles, Cal.

• • •

Dandelions are a pest, and heir-cannot be used legally in the manufacture of wine for liquor purposes, according to a ruling of Federal Prohibition Director Haynes, made public by Collector Fergason at Newark, N. J.

• • •

Twenty-seven hundred motormen and conductors engaged in the Cleveland (O.) Railway company have voted to accept a 10% reduction in wages.

• • •

Federal Prohibition Enforcement Agent J. W. Floyd was shot and killed by a wanted prisoner he was guarding in the rear of a residence at Houston, Texas. The police said a fusillade of shots was fired.

• • •

Personal

Mrs. Gustavus F. Swift, widow of Gustavus F. Swift, the packing firm of that name, died at her residence at Chicago.

• • •

George W. Hughes, chairman of the Big Four Tent association and director of the ocean-to-ocean highway, is dead at his home in Paris, Ill., of heart disease.

• • •

Sporting

Longshot betters reaped a harvest at Churchill Downs race track by two lengths, paid $164.80 to $1.

• • •

Foreign

A Constantinople dispatch says that the Christian Science Monitor has published a proclamation of amnesty for the soldiers of Enver Pasha, and many of them are reported to be returning to Russia here.

• • •

The newspaper Tribuna at Rome states that an agreement has been concluded between Italy and Jugo-Slavia fixing the status of the Adriatic seaports of Zara and Fiume.

• • •

A fire swept the historic hospital of Santa Spirito, one of the oldest and most picturesque charitable institutions in Rome. Twenty lunatics were taken from the burning ruins.

• • •

English women are eligible to hold high municipal authorities, according to a ruling by the attorney general at London. The decision is the result of the admission of women as members of the bar.

• • •

Owing to increased taxation and other burdens, the duke of Richmond offers for sale 10,000 estates in Sussex and several other railway systems in the United States.

• • •

The graves of 40,000 American soldiers, who fought overseas in the first part of the American Legion fighting forces, was adopted unanimously at a closing meeting of the political committee of the national executive committee at Detroit.

• • •

By a vote of 29 to 4, the committee on the privileges of the house of lords at London decided that Lady Rhondda's petition to sit in the house of lords had "not been made out."

• • •

The Polish diet at Warsaw has enacted a law requiring an annual vaccination of two weeks with pay for all industrial workers.

• • •

Michael Collins and Eamon de Valera, leaders on an agreement for peace in Ireland, says a London dispatch.

• • •

A Paris dispatch says that the British steamship Egypt of the Peninsular & Oriental line, London to Bombay was sunk with heavy loss of life. It collided in a dense fog with the French freighter Seine off the coast of Brittany, and sank within sight of the coast and the port of Brest. The Egypt carried 296 persons, of whom only 102