Important News Events of the World Summarized

Washington

President Harding at Washington started the Weatherill-Kenzie bill, restoring the navy, army, marine corps and coast guard service to pre-war pay schedules.

• • •

Evacuation of the Lithuanian government from Genoa and Venizelos was announced by the Lithuanian legation at Washington.

• • •

Herbert Hoover's wartime relief work in Belgium was to be further recognized by the award to him of a special medal by the Belgian government, it is announced at Washington.

• • •

The world faces a shortage of wheat which will begin to be felt at the end of the month, Secretary of Commerce Hoover's foodstuffs division made public in a statement to this effect at Washington.

• • •

A canvass of the senate at Washington of the supporters of the McCumber bonus bill, after a poll was taken by that the bill is certain to pass.

• • •

President Harding in a special message to the senate at Washington, stated that the policy of the United States Interior departments in dealing with the naval oil reserves had felt an equitable proval.

• • •

Military secrets of the German high command have been sold to the United States army by a former officer of what was learned on highest authority at Washington.

• • •

Government seizure of the intramontane mines as a final step to end the coal strike was considered by the state of Washington by Senator Leonard Wood, who is a candidate for the senate.

• • •

A favorable report on the senate at Washington on the soldier bonus bill estimates the probable cost of the bonus at $3,945,000,000. This would be spread over a period of 41 years, and is $2,000,000,000 less than the estimate under the house bill.

Domestic

Fatalities of 40 union miners were ordered evicted from houses of the Brady Coal company near Morgantown, W. Va., after a gunfight believed to a slough on the Illinois river near Bayou, Ill.

• • •

George Johnson, aged forty, a baseball player known as "Chief" Johnson, was found murdered in the rear of a building at 907 Southeast Tenth street of his Sisters, in the head been shot.

• • •

The open shop employment, wage reductions, recognition of senior Russian, the one big union, court decrees and injunctions affecting labor and other subjects formed the chief issues that confronted the American Federation of Labor, when it opened its two-weeks' convention at Cincinnati.

• • •

Three persons are known to be dead, thirteen seriously injured, others are believed entombed in the ruins of Durkee lake, a summer resort near Nelsonville, Ohio, as the result of a cloudburst.

• • •

Fred Roberts, known to the police as "The Fred" because of his diminutive size, was given a thirty-day sentence with three policemen at Kansas City, Mo., for impersonation of Egypt and others.

• • •

There is evidence of a "well-financed" for a strike of railroad employees, Samuel H. Fisher, chairman of the Chicago Great Western railroad, said at a meeting of the Rotary club, the Executives' club of Chicago.

• • •

W. C. Murdock, a grandson of the late John B. Stetson, founder of the hat manufacturer, and his bride of a week, were killed when an airplane in which they were flying crashed to earth at Hialeah park, Miami, Fla.

• • •

Records for the season were broken for a single day when more than 50,000 persons attended the opening of the Belmont Park race track, Long Island, without the use of organs.

• • •

Two Nickel Lewis-wafering from scrub, but unlike the one sufferer schoolhouse now in, with a stable in one end of it, and a hen house in the other. The pupils have a good many such schools, and are full to congratulations of counselors, which often have to run the claim-jumper off the premises