All Cincinnati Invites You to the Spring Opening of its Stores Tuesday and Wednesday March 14th and 15th. The Mayor of Cincinnati, The Citizens and The Stores, extend to you a hearty invitation to come to Cincinnati to see the interesting displays of everything Fashion and Commerce have created for Spring 1922. For the first time all the stores will have their formal openings on the same days. These two days will be YOUR days, to look around, to visit the stores—great and small, to learn all about the charming new spring fashions, the lovely new materials, the fascinating things in home decorations and furnishings—in a word, all the material luxuries and comforts that will add to the joy of living in the coming months. The most exquisite creations that Paris has inspired and the foremost makers of America have developed—the most modern and desirable equipment for the home, will be presented in an unparalleled variety that will make your visit delightfully interesting as well as profitable. Visitors will receive a hearty welcome and unfailing courtesy. For those who come in automobiles parking space has been arranged for... Large parking spaces at Ninth and Syracuse and on the East side of Spangore, between Fourth and Fifth streets, have been set aside for our visitors. Bring this ad with you; it will entitle you to the privilege of parking your car free of charge. If you are interested in Spring Fashions— If you love beautiful things for yourself or for the home— If you need new and helpful appliances in your household— you will be well repaid for a visit to Cincinnati!
