HARRIET and the PIPER

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"I mean marriage," she said, looking at him with a steady gaze. "I mean marriage, I mean marriage, I mean marriage." She said it over and over again, as if it were a magic spell. Harriet looked at her, and then she looked at the piper. The piper was looking at her, and then he looked at Harriet. Harriet looked at the piper, and then she looked at Harriet. Harriet looked at the piper, and then she looked at Harriet.
