WORLD'S EVENTS IN SHORT FORM

BEST OF THE NEWS BOILED DOWN TO LIMIT.

ARRANGED FOR BUSY PEOPLE

Notes Covering Most Important Happenings of the World Compiled in Briefest and Most Succinct Form for Quick Consumption.

Personal

J. Pierpont Morgan was received in audience at Rome by Pope Pius XI. Mr. Morgan was also sponsored by Professor Lysaenzi, presented a special album to the Roman pontiff.

• • •

Cal W. Conrad, originator of "Rub-weiner" beer, died at his home at St. Louis. He was eighty-one years old and was born in Baden, Germany.

• • •

Senator Curtis of Kansas, assistant Republican floor leader of the senate, is ill at Washington from a progressive disorder, it is said, and a decision on an operation is being considered.

• • •

It is reported at Riga that Premier Nikolai Lenin of Russia has again been stricken with illness, forced to relinquish all his official duties, and has left Moscow for the country.

• • •

Dr. Chauncey Waggoner, head of the department of physics in West Virginia university, died at Morgantown, W. Va., from injuries received when he was thrown from a horse.

• • •

Former Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo reached his address in Dodge City, Kan., and also addresses scheduled for Syracuse, Kan., and Denver in quick succession.

• • •

Women citizens at New Brunswick, N. J., once she was Mrs. Hall at the scene when the pastor and their leader were killed.

• • •

Lieut. E. L. Erickson and R. P. Armstrong, were instantly killed at Norfolk, Va., when a training plane fell 500 feet at the Hampton Roads naval air station.

• • •

The Northwestern Association of Sheriffs and Police at Seattle, Wash., has arranged to append a radio information service throughout the North-west to trap criminals.

The Detroit (Mich.) Association of Congregational Churches passed resolutions urging a union of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, Congregational, Protestant Episcopal and Evangelical denominations.

Sentence was suspended at New York on Frederick Hazell, a bailee peddler and owner of an $8,000 car, on his promise to leave the city. A detective testified he had seen 75 persons give him money.

• • •

George Morrison announced at Raleigh that plans will be laid before the next general assembly for organizing a company, with the state of North Carolina as principal owner, to operate a steamship fleet.

• • •

A cargo of 60,267 boxes of fruit arrived at New York on the Standard steamer Sunday. This is the first big importation of Christmas fruit this year.

• • •

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen agrees to establish a bank for employees, with written assurance by Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the engineers, asserting in an address at Chicago.

• • •

A sentence of 45 days in jail was pronounced at Kalamazoon, Mich., on Merrill B. King, president of the Bell Paper company, following conviction on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

• • •

The first motorcar contest in which Izaac to Theodore Roosevelt will participated at Boston Harbor, Mich., with elaborate ceremonies in Roosevelt honor, on the occasion of the late president's birthday.

• • •

Dr. Albert J. Lichtner of Chicago was elected president of the American College of Surgeons at Boston, and Dr. Franklin H. Martin of Chicago was chosen director general.

Foreign

The Fascisti rolled several cities in Italy as they began their march on Rome, intent on taking over the government, says a London dispatch.

• • •

A party of Belgian soldiers has been attacked and murdered by Bolshevik civilians of Mosolberg, near Mora, Riga, Latvia, Russia, according to a Reuters dispatch.

• • •

The Turkish nationalist government at Angora has officially accepted the invitation to participate in the peace conference for November 11 at Lausanne, Switzerland.

• • •

The first stamp of the new Soviet democratic republic bearing the name of former President Roosevelt will be presented to Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt when the issue is made. It is an 8-hundred at 5 cents.

• • •

Supreme Court justice Day testified his resignation to the President, at Washington, was mailed on October 24. He becomes umpire of the American-German mixed claims commission.

• • •

President Harding at Washington, is entirely satisfied with Brig. Gen. Charles H. Sawyer as minister to Albania, it is said at the White House, and will not be recalled, it is said.

• • •

The Post office department at Washington has issued bids for 1,500,000 pounds of transportation. The bids would amount to $30,000 miles of route, more than the distance around the earth through the equator.

• • •

A defensive alliance of all the American republics may be the result of the Pan-American conference on disarmament, which meets in Washington December 1, according to Latin-American gossip.

Domestic

Leading Chicago bankers in an appeal to the people of the United States and the Germans behind their currency to end its lasting heavy war operations.

• • •

George McLeod, an old settler of Barnes, Ills., has died and left a fortune neighbor more than 600 pounds in a thirty-year period.

• • •

Three bandits robbed the First State bank of Dekalb, Ohio, taking $2,200 and escaping in a waiting Liberty bonds.

• • •

Chiefs of the Indian bands of Sioux Indians, meeting at Fierre S. D., asked the government to purchase their tribes the whole of the Black Hills land.

• • •

A bomb which shook the homes of several men of wealth at Chicago was exploded in front of the unoccupied home of Edward E. Ayer.

• • •

The New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, at a meeting of 1,000 women, opposed the Lusk child bill.

• • •

The Missouri corporation general at Jefferson City, Mo., has ruled that the state's anti-trust law does not apply to the New York coastwise steamship lines, which are engaged in interstate commerce, and that the Missouri Pacific railroad may control them.

• • •

Prince Andrew, brother of former King Constantine of Greece, has been exiled by the revolutionary government, it was announced in London. He is the father of Prince Philip, husband of Princess Elizabeth, heir to the British throne.

• • •

Premier Furlan of the entire ministry of Rome resigned following the Fascisti demonstrations, it was announced here. Premier Mussolini is said to be the successor to the Furlan cabinet.

• • •

Premier Poincare of France, in a speech at Nancy, declared that the Ruhr occupation will be continued until Germany has complied with the treaty of Versailles.

• • •

Chinese bandits have kidnaped Miss Ethel Burgess, daughter of a missionary, and demanded $10,000 for her release, according to a dispatch from Changsha, China.

• • •

Mexico City's new subway, the first in Latin America, was opened to the public. The system is 3.5 miles long and cost $5,000,000.

• • •

Mexico's new president, Alvaro Obregon, has announced that he will not recognize the Soviet government of Russia