HENRY FORD THROWS A BOMBSHELL

Henry Ford threw a bombshell into business last week with the announcement that his plants in Detroit and other parts of the country would close down Sept. 16 for an indefinite period, on account of lack of coal. The shutdown will throw 160,000 people out of employment and be a heavy setback to the revival of business in general. Mr. Ford says he is now turning out 5,200 cars a day and could sell 5,000 a day.

WHAT ABOUT THE FARMER?

(Wilmore Enterprise)

According to David Fairchild, president of the Michigan Agricultural College, there are six times as many workers on the farms as there are in the railway transportation, yet they received only three times as much this year for labor, plus their products, by old the railway workers. In other words the railroad workers receive twice as much for their work, per person, as did the farmer. Putting it another way; the people engaged in railway transportation are receiving four and one half per cent of our working population, and paying for seven per cent of the nation's purchasing power, while the farmer, representing over twenty-six per cent of the working population, received less than twenty per cent of the nation's purchasing power.

In view of the claims of railway labor that it is underpaid and cannot exist on what it is now getting, as given them, this statement is illuminating. And yet while the farmer is living, carrying on and working and piling up the nation's wealth, unstintingly without getting his fair proportion of the recompense for his production, he is neither striking nor obstructing the orderly flow of business.

CHAINED TO BICYCLE

Ervin J. Smith, of Austin, Texas, chained to a bicycle, peddled to Frankfort last week to obtain the signature of Gen. Morrow, in his two-year journey he will visit the capital of every State in the Nation. The riders say that blind him are forty-six inches long and with numerous scales hold his feet securely bound to his bicycle. Mr. Smith is twenty-four years of age and began his tour of 20,000 miles on a proposition that will be very profitable if he wins. To date he has visited the capitals of every state bordering on the Atlantic Coast, Gulf Coast and the New England States. At Frankfort he had gone 12,261 miles of his journey. He sells a little cast to defray his expenses.—Exchange.

AN EDITOR'S INVOICE

An editor once kept track of his profits and losses during the year, and gave an invoice of his business dirty at the end of twelve months. It ups and downs in the following manner:

Been broke 261 times.
Praised the public 99 times.
Called liar 726 times.
Missed number 471 times.
Been rounded 471 times.
Roasted others 12 times.
Worked office 'round 13 hours.
Missed meal 0.
Mistaken for a preacher 11 times.
Mistaken for a capitalist 0.
Got whipped 3 times.
Cash on hand at beginning $11.47.
Cash on hand at ending 19—Mistaken 19. Is Gained.

While gathering apple in the year, at his home, Rev. Gerald Conley, of Brooksville, was severely injured when he fell from a tree.

$50,000

The fiftieth annual meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association, at Lexington, Oct. 23-27, will certainly be a Good-in-Addition event, for $50,000 in cash premiums will be distributed amongst the winners and the racing is certainly to be of the highest class. The stables have filled to overflowing with the best horses in the country and the meet is for less than $1000.

Every day with five or more races will be a big day and the opening (Monday, Oct. 23) will certainly be a bummer; for on that day The Futurity for two-year-olds (worth $14,000) is programmed for action and on the same day there are three more stakes worth not much less than $1000.

On Wednesday, Oct. 4, The Cumberland, always a sensational purse race, and three other fast races will be on the program, including 2:05 (Class), always the greatest race of the year, for trotters eligible to 2:05. On Thursday, June 5, is scheduled for Futurity, Oct. 5. On Friday, Oct. 6, The May Day for two-year-olds; (value estimated value is $17,000), as well as The Board of Commerce for the free-for-all pacers, ought to be in condition to race record, for it is seldom that the public has an opportunity to see two such races on a single day as the classic stake, The Kentucky, is set for Saturday, Oct. 7, and The Futurity ($4000), which will probably bring out one of the greatest fields of trotters ever seen, is on the card for Monday, Oct. 9.

On Tuesday, Oct. 10, The Castleton and The Lafayette, the former for $1000 and the latter for $2500, will furnish two of the most sensational races of the year; and on Wednesday, Oct. 11, The Ashland and The Lexington will be decided. On the last day the program calls for four of the best races of the meeting. Experts pronounce this the best program ever turned by any trotting association.

HEALTH BOARD AFTER PRESCRIPTION SELLERS

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 4—The State Board of Health is setting on foot a campaign against the few doctors of the State who are willing to use their authority to write prescriptions for liquor and the disgraceful practice of selling prescriptions to all applicants who can pay a fee for them."

The first step in the campaign already has been taken. It was to urge all County Medical Societies to secure from members who write prescriptions conform strictly with the law. The next step, Dr. McCormack said, will be prosecutions where evidence is submitted to the State Board of Health showing that men are indiscriminately prescribing whiskey.

"We know," Dr. McCormack said, "that such a practice is condemned as entirely outrageous and indefensible by ninety-nine out of every hundred doctors in Kentucky, but it appears to the profession of the State to take no stand publicly and we think the people know that the men that are engaged in such practices are merely taking the places of that worst element of the old saloon-keepers who forced national prohibition on the country.

Only four hundred of the three thousand doctors in the State write prescriptions at all, according to Dr. McCormack.

Thirty-two motorists were fined in police court at Paris Monday on charges of driving their automobiles at night without rear lights burning.

EVERY DAY SPENT IN SCHOOL WORTH $0.25

If you ever have of a boy or girl who wants to quit school, show it to them and tell them to look at the people who are thinking of putting their children to work, when it is unnecessary; if you ever hate of parents who are thinking of putting their children to work, when it is unnecessary, just bring these figures to their attention:

Every day spent in school pays the child $5.

Here is the proof, based on the wages of 1912:

Common school labourers earn on the average $1,000 per year for forty years, a sum of $40,000.

High school graduates earn on the average $1,500 per year for forty years, a total of $60,000.

College graduates earn on the average $2,500 per year for forty years, a total of $100,000.

If 1,460 days at school add $20,000 to the income for life, then each day at school adds $13.25.

The child that starts out of school at less than $9.00 a day is losing money—not making money.

These figures are based on an investigation made by Dr. A. Caswell Ellis, of the University of Texas, at the request of the U. S. Bureau of Education.

NATIONAL LEAF MEETING TO BE PLANNED BY POOL

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 4.—Tobacco co-operative associations in all parts of the country, as well as prominent their executives, counsel, secretaries and representatives, are meeting to be held some time this fall, either in Lexington or Louisville, it was announced at the offices of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association here today.

The meeting will be in the nature of a conference to discuss the problems of kindred interest, such as the co-operative legislation sought by the tobacco industry, farm conditions in general and other matters of mutual interest to farmers who also are to burley growers.

The conference is being planned by President and General Manager James Burley Brown, of Louisville, Brigham and Aaron Sapiro, general counsel of most of the tobacco associations that has had a part in the organization of all of them, including the one now in Wisconsin and Connecticut. The leaders of the movement in this state felt that there are so many matters of mutual interest to all the tobacco growers of the country that such a conference would result in much good to all the strictly co-operative.

FIRE DESTROYS LANDMARK

The old Burika homestead at the intersection of the Sardis and Blue Lick pike in Robertson county caught fire from an exploding lamp and was completely destroyed, together with a large warehouse across the pike and one occupied by tenants. Considerable property was owned by Mrs. R. W. Dotson and occupied by her son Hubert Dotson and family, with whom she lives.

The entire three buildings, besides the passing of one of the landmarks of the county, the residence was a two-story building with ell, and was built by Gen. Burika about a century ago. In the early '90's the property was bought by Henry Dotson, a man who familiarly known as "Dutch Mary," and used by them as a tenant house for many years. They prospered and accumulated a considerable estate.—Mt. Olivet Tribune-Democrat.

ALVERSON TURNS REPUBLICAN

"Kinder changing his politics to suit the occasion," he would say. Now Jesse has gone and done the identical thing. Hereupon Joe Bosworth is very much pleased and says he never knew Alverson was a democrat. Carlisle, Ky., Route 2. Home phone, 7-10-tfll Inc. *

Just a Word Why Churches Should Advertise

The writer was in Syracuse, N.Y., one Sunday last August. He was detained because of an accident at his car. He wanted to go to church that night, but he didn't know where to go. He picked up the Syracuse Herald and looked through it from the front page to the back, but there wasn't a word about the church or the church services. As for as the papers were concerned there was no church in Syracuse.

But it wasn't so with the movies and other houses of entertainment. Oh, no! Their invitations were spread in large advertisements all over the page. There were a dozen invitations to go out on Sunday night for amusement, but not one to go to the House of God.

Possibly the following notices appeared in the Saturday issue. They generally do, but this was Sunday and the Sunday paper was the one available. The amusement places did not overlook Sunday papers.

There may have been many more in the city with the same thoughts and desire as the writer. He happened to remember that there was a church that he believes in the back corridors, so he took the trouble to go downstairs. Being a Methodist, he looked for the Methodist churches. There were two on the board, so he picked out one and took a chance.

We suppose that some will say that a man or woman who wants to go to church will find a way. That's true, but why permit the theatres to have the monopoly? Isn't the church a business? If it isn't, it's time it was. Think it over.

COMMENT

Judge Shackelford, of the Madison-Clark-Jessamine district, says the automobile is a dangerous weapon, even though it may not be committed. The judge is right; they are dangerous enough as it is, and if people should begin carrying loaded weapons in their pockets, life on the public highway would become a terrible thing.

"State Road" has a fine, high-sounding ring to it, but if that old and gutted surface is a sample of the stretch of pike from Carlisle to Millersburg, the "county road" will be a work for eternity. "One strike" which is said to be running the policy, just as "one strike" caused everything that has happened since. But the road is not perfectly good pike because a county trial agent.

The qualifications being demanded by the democratic press of the present standard bearer in the race for governor are not many, but such as they are such high qualifications, in fact, that the Cynthiana Democrat says that Morrow has in mind was not mentioned. Memory has in mind was not mentioned. Memory has in mind was not mentioned. Memory
