A movement is on foot by the members of Headquarters Lodge, No. 96, I. O. O. F., to remove their lodge to Hillside hoping in this way to build up a stronger lodge and more effectually relieve the design of the order before the public. As a step in that direction they have secured an ex-Nicholas county boy, Jesse Clay Ford, of Paris, a finest speaker, an enthusiastic Odd Fellow and a member of their Grand Lodge, to deliver an address on the objects and principals of the order, which will be given next Saturday, the 16th, at 2 p. m., to which the public is most cordially invited, especially the ladies. After the speaking, a chance will be given those desiring to sign a petition, and if their response is as generous as expected it will be but a few more days when many steps looking to a prompt obtaining of permission from the Grand Master sanctioning such a course, and the removal of the charter, regalia and effects to town.
