The shortage in Ford cars we have been telling you about is long as us Ford Motor Co. has 90,000 more orders for cars in March than they can fill. We were sure this condition was coming, but did not look for it so early.

Right now we want you to know that we have more cars than we can sell. We have a few cars on which we can make immediate delivery, but when they are gone we can make no promise for the future. If you want a car in the next 60 days, put in your order immediately, for it looks as if orders given in April would be 30 days in delivery. Now this condition will not exist with us alone, but with every Ford agent in the country.
