News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

Washington

President Harding left Washington with Mrs. Harding and a party of friends on a yacht trip for Florida for a four or five weeks' holidaying. He was on the yacht Mayflower.

Charles V. Vickrey, general secretary of the Near East relief work at Washington, reports expenditures totalling more than $12,000,000 during the last year.

The Department of Commerce at Washington announces that gross exports from the United States last week were $170,000 hushels, as compared with 4,203,000 during the previous week. The total for the week is the largest recorded for the shipment of 3,173,000 bushels of barley in United States.

A party of senators and Representatives in the U.S. Congress left Washington for the shipping board to will continue the operation of all its lines, without change, until detailed plans for transferring its merchant fleet into private hands are completed.

President Harding at Washington signed the British debt funding bill.

The commander Cooper-Limestone Strong rural credits bill was passed by the house at Washington, by a vote of 305 to 96.

President Harding at Washington signed the army appropriation bill, appropriating $50,000,000 for river and harbor projects.

The senate at Washington passed a resolution for appointment of a special senate committee of three senators to investigate the veterans bureau.

The Treasury department of Washington announces that, largely by economy, the country's debt was reduced by $1,047,244.6 in February. The public debt now is $22,713,839,730.

The house at Washington passed the Mississippi river flood control bill, which authorizes an expenditure of $325,000,000 for the next five years, for the supervision of the Mississippi river commission.

The Commerce department at Washington, in final summary of the 1922 fiscal year, says that the normal mail exports from the United States after April last year were cut nearly one-half by the coal strike.

David E. Hempstead, who was active in the campaign of Senator Frank Willis, (Ohio) for re-election, filed a petition at Washington protesting the nomination to the senate of Andrew D. Peck.

President Harding at Washington, signed the Porter resolution requesting the administration to invite foreign nations with friendly governments looking to restoration of production of habit-forming drugs.

Investigation was ordered by the senate at Washington into charges of waste and mismanagement of the veterans' bureau. Senator Reed Smoot, (Ut.) was made chairman of the investigating committee.

Domestic

Pattons coal employees affiliated with labor organizations have begun to demand President Harding at Washington to restore the eight hour day, following these four, four, light, eleven pay and service for dockings.

The Blue Star Line at San Francisco is considering operating a permanent service between Puerto Rico and Europe to prevent refrigerator and dry cargo space now being taken by the Chilean military and the Chilean nitrate commission, according to shippers on the Kitchen railway were advised.

During a mutiny on board a mine-sweeper aboard the American forces on the Rhine, arrived at New York on the steamship George Washington.

Former Governor Cameron Owen, (Ohio) will practice law in Cleveland, having formed the firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey.

One Chinese food officer was killed, another seriously injured and four students slightly hurt when a plane bombing plane fell at Mitchell Field, New York.

The entire estate of Charlemagne Tower of Philadelphia, former ambassador to Russia, Austria and Germany, is left to his widow and children. The value of the estate is placed close to $10,000,000.

Bessemer mine employees failed to pay their union dues, 3,000 miners employed at the Gross Island and Eagle Creek collieries of the Hudson Coal company at Gilford, Va., have gone on strike.

The assembly of Maryland, Wis., empowered the local general manager to bill, which will raise nearly $10,000,000 for the construction of a new capitol.

The French government at Paris is spending a $5,000,000 interior bond issue to run 34 weeks, with cash prices in long 5.25%.

The French government at Paris is considering a proposal to establish a commission of Japanese farmers from California on the west coast of Mexico.

The Lithuanian government at Kovno claimed that Poles agents invaded the Lithuanian territory in the Villa district, and that five Polish soldiers were captured and one killed.

A heavy earthquake has been felt in southern Moldavia, which is one of the southern islands of the Philippines and has a population of 600,000. It is believed the center originated near Cotabato.

Admiral H. P. Jones, commander of the American battle fleet, will transfer to the Pennsylvania after the combined Atlantic fleets go through maneuvers at Bathon, Canal Zone.

Eulogy of the late Representative W. Bourke Cockran was voiced at a memorial service held in the house of representatives at Washington, D.C. A congressional party attended the services.

J. H. Hotter of South Chicago and J. L. King of Beaumont, members of an Indiana Harbor Belt Railway crew, were killed when the engine on which they were riding overturned near Hammond, Ind.

Two days' sick leave in fifty years of service is the record of Horace F. Chatfield, assistant chief of the stamp division of the Post Office department at Washington, who has retired.

An entire Chicago family of six persons was wiped out by poison administered by a foreigner when the former was found dead in a cottage near the apartment house.

The bridge over the Tennessee river at Florence, Ala., which has a steel span 700 feet in length, 3 concrete piers and formerly turned over to the railroad commission of Alabama.

Breaking of the blockade removed the tension by the rum fleet off New Jersey shores, and federal agents will ask the government for an order permitting transportation of the cargo to the rum owners.

The Pennsylvania and Erie canal, which was built in 1840 and operated by the state until 1858, when it was sold to the Pennsylvania railroad company, has been abandoned by the state department of public works.

Breaking of the blockade removed the tension by the rum fleet off New Jersey shores, and federal agents will ask the government for an order permitting transportation of the cargo to the rum owners.

The Pennsylvania and Erie canal, which was built in 1840 and operated by the state until 1858, when it was sold to the Pennsylvania railroad company, has been abandoned by the state department of public works.

Passage of between $250,000 and $300,000 worth of liquor was prevented when the police broke in the basement of the Capper Laundry, Inc., in Detroit, Mich., and found barrels of liquor probably fatally and several hundred cases of beer.

Six enlisted men of the United States destroyer Hulbert of the Atlantic fleet were killed and seven injured in Manila in an explosion in the boiler room of the destroyer, a merchant of all. No others were injured.

Foreign

Father Luis Perez was stabbed to death while conducting mass at Bilbao, Spain, by a fanatic.

General Crowder, ambassador of the United States to Cuba, was decorated with the Order of Merit.

Thieves stored goods were demolished and many Jews looted, stolen goods and destroyed in the outbreak of anti-Semitism at the conclusion of a meeting of the Nationalist committee.

President Hindenburg at Berlin, signed the Porter resolution requesting the administration to invite foreign nations with friendly governments looking to restoration of production of habit-forming drugs.

The town of Sesto San Giovanni, has been evacuated by the Italian troops and the Italian troops occupied the town.

Mr. Vorowsky, the Russian envoy to Switzerland, was shot and killed by a Third Internationale which has urged the boycotting of the Russian envoy in connection with the Russian government's trade pact.

A Shanghai dispatch says the general assembly of the Chinese republic was called for Friday, has been called by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who has been taken by the Chinese military and the Chinese navy, and the Chinese republic laborers on the Kitchen railway were advised.

During a mutiny on board a mine-sweeper aboard the American forces on the Rhine, arrived at New York on the steamship George Washington.

Former Governor Cameron Owen, (Ohio) will practice law in Cleveland, having formed the firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey.

One Chinese food officer was killed, another seriously injured and four students slightly hurt when a plane bombing plane fell at Mitchell Field, New York.

The entire estate of Charlemagne Tower of Philadelphia, former ambassador to Russia, Austria and Germany, is left to his widow and children. The value of the estate is placed close to $10,000,000.

Bessemer mine employees failed to pay their union dues, 3,000 miners employed at the Gross Island and Eagle Creek collieries of the Hudson Coal company at Gilford, Va., have gone on strike.

The assembly of Maryland, Wis., empowered the local general manager to bill, which will raise nearly $10,000,000 for the construction of a new capitol.

The French government at Paris is spending a $5,000,000 interior bond issue to run 34 weeks, with cash prices in long 5.25%.

The French government at Paris is considering a proposal to establish a commission of Japanese farmers from California on the west coast of Mexico.

The Lithuanian government at Kovno claimed that Poles agents invaded the Lithuanian territory in the Villa district, and that five Polish soldiers were captured and one killed.

These People Really Enjoy Winter Weather

Fish who live in Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn., know how to extract a lot of pleasure out of winter conditions. These photographs show home eating on the ice; Jack Gogh's anchor ice boat making a turn at 70 miles an hour, and three darling girls who have hitched their toboggan to a fleet ice yacht.

Once Owned the Greatest Mine

Dapper Benny Hit Upon Six Claims That Now Produce $1,000,000 a Month.

LADY LUCK TURNS HER BACK

Benny, Saved by Philosophical Slant, Settled Down to Simple Life—Heart Stops Beating While Saying a Prayer.

Look entries on this man and then deserts him. What do you think of his character?

Jack walked from behind the bar and poured three figures for each man. Each dapper Fifteen drinks had to come from each quest, and he preferred to portion the liquid himself. But as for the bar and counter, Jack was the boss and he was that he was a gentleman, and therefore wouldn't take more than his share. Hastings and Jack drank beside a glass on the bar, and Jack was waiting for a customer to step up and pour for yourself. Benny.

Benny frowned.

Benny frowned the stove and poured. "Look, Benny," he said, "I'm going to the railway was washed down.

Benny leaned over the bar and whispered: "Jack, there's a god-sent waiting if you can only take time to grab it."

Jack queried. He had been a sucker since before.

"Good waiting to be picked up," Benny continued. "Just sold in mercy, my luck's just right now."

Jack had heard those stories of the Porcupine fool, 150 miles north and Benny's fond way not past the 'Porcupine. But one couldn't take a chance. It all talk and no dust.

"Sold what?" asked. He knew the fellow had to know now who had found gold there. What was needed was a name.

"Why, shore and shore alike," Benny replied. "Sold all I had to sell. It was hard to hold out against temptation, but I'm glad I got my massive talker before."

When Benny walked out with Jack's $75 the gold in the outer world was forgotten. Jack was sure that Benny had been cheated and found his claim. They joked McMahon so much that the poor fellow couldn't take a joke on temptation. But one couldn't take a prize-fight from Benny.

But Jack McMahon had a brother-in-law, D. Lalonde, who had been a Porcupine's richness. One-half of his half in Benny's stake would be worth $75—because he was in the family. They all had $75 to start with, and Benny paid his $75.

Rang Town Fire Alarm to Get His Witnesses

In order to subpoena 1,050 witnesses in the trial of two gang strikers who were accused of murdering a non-union miner, a law, the sheriff of Brown county, Kan., rang the fire alarm bell at Horton, Kan., where most of the witnesses live, and when the bell was sounded, practically every person in it was notified to be in court at the next session.

BANDIT CAREER OF BOY ENDED

"Studious and Bashful" High School Athlete Robs Stations, Wounds Officer, and is Killed.

Kansas City, Mo.—His fare scanned with starred pupils in overalls and a jumper, Ray C. Bishop, nineteen years old, popular high school athlete and student, and Ralph Bartell, also a high school student of Manual.

The French government at Paris is spending a $5,000,000 interior bond issue to run 34 weeks, with cash prices in long 5.25%.

The French government at Paris is considering a proposal to establish a commission of Japanese farmers from California on the west coast of Mexico.

The Lithuanian government at Kovno claimed that Poles agents invaded the Lithuanian territory in the Villa district, and that five Polish soldiers were captured and one killed.

GURDEN PUT ON DOUGHBOY

Army Experts Seeking a Method by Which Soldiers Land May Be Lightened.

Washington—The heaviest load carried aboard of the army in the doughboy himself. Such for luck by size or pound for pound of his own weight, the back privates of infantry earlier on his back into battle double the burden handicked by horses or under a motor truck.

Army experts are working their brains for ways to cut down the doughboy's load. Exhaustive study has been given to war experience for that purpose. Through the Americas legion and similar organizations of former soldiers have been made to get the men who carried the infantry packs in France to suggest changes, so far, however, it has been possible. It was most lost in low-lying spruce swamps. They staked everything on claims. Then they tossed a coin to decide which should be the six men and which be the six worst claims. Benny got the western claims.

Benny found a prospectors hoop, he surveyed with them, and, on his land, Someone had given up there, and Benny had staked it. Then the claims ran the portage trail, over which hundreds had passed. No one had found gold there, but you never know your luck till you tried.

The staking adventure began dig ging, and he found quartz veined with white metal. Benny had to pack his pack full, and started Cobalt way. Days later Benny reached the edge of Cobalt to see Alphonse Pare, miner, and Benny's claims were staked. Benny had been right. Jack McMahon, who had made a little money silver adding around Cobalt.

Pare stopped Benny and asked what playing around with. Benny told his luck had turned after seven years of bad luck. Pare offered him a thousand dollars. Fifteen drinks had to come from each quest, and he preferred to portion the liquid himself. But as for the bar and counter, Jack was the boss and he was that he was a gentleman, and therefore wouldn't take more than his share. Hastings and Jack drank beside a glass on the bar, and Jack was waiting for a customer to step up and pour for yourself. Benny.

Benny frowned.

"Look, Benny," he said, "I'm going to the railway was washed down.

Benny leaned over the bar and whispered: "Jack, there's a god-sent waiting if you can only take time to grab it."

Jack queried. He had been a sucker since before.

"Good waiting to be picked up," Benny continued. "Just sold in mercy, my luck's just right now."

Jack had heard those stories of the Porcupine fool, 150 miles north and Benny's fond way not past the 'Porcupine. But one couldn't take a chance. It all talk and no dust.

"Sold what?" asked. He knew the fellow had to know now who had found gold there. What was needed was a name.

"Why, shore and shore alike," Benny replied. "Sold all I had to sell. It was hard to hold out against temptation, but I'm glad I got my massive talker before."

When Benny walked out with Jack's $75 the gold in the outer world was forgotten. Jack was sure that Benny had been cheated and found his claim. They joked McMahon so much that the poor fellow couldn't take a joke on temptation. But one couldn't take a prize-fight from Benny.

But Jack McMahon had a brother-in-law, D. Lalonde, who had been a Porcupine's richness. One-half of his half in Benny's stake would be worth $75—because he was in the family. They all had $75 to start with, and Benny paid his $75.

Ring Town Fire Alarm to Get His Witnesses

In order to subpoena 1,050 witnesses in the trial of two gang strikers who were accused of murdering a non-union miner, a law, the sheriff of Brown county, Kan., rang the fire alarm bell at Horton, Kan., where most of the witnesses live, and when the bell was sounded, practically every person in it was notified to be in court at the next session.

FIRE NETS CATCH PITTSBURGH GIRLS

ONE DEAD AND SCORE HURT WHEN FLAMES DESTROY BUILDING

Blaze Proves Blaze Which Rocks Four-Story Brick Building—Fame of Notorious Dance Hall Girls Widespread Over Opposite Side of Street.

Pittsburg, Penn.—One unidentified man was killed, a score were injured and a number were missing following a fire which completely destroyed the brick building, and fired two floors of the building occupied by a showgirl. The fire started when flames were raised from flying glass and when hanging into fly away caught by fire, men were taken to nearby hospitals. Lionel Barrymore, Pittsburg, Penn., gets attending a missionary church meeting on the third floor of the building. They leaped into life nets.

The fire followed a series of heavy blasts on the first floor of the show store. Flames from the explosion shattered large plate-glass windows and poured out into the street, fanning glass striking a number of persons.

The dead man lost his life when he leaped from a window on the third floor of the building.

Property loss was estimated at $125,000.

AMERICAN BALKS IN RUHR

Will Be Used To Dig Coal In German Mines, Is Report

New York.—Harry V. Daugherty, attorney general of the United States announced that he had received a report that Americans would be used to dig coal in the Ruhr district. The report was made secret by the French forces of occupation. Mr. Daugherty's statement was made in the form of a letter to Senator Reed Smoot, (Ut.) chairman of the senate committee on finance, which is considering the Porter resolution to prohibit the importation of habit-forming drugs.

"Information has been received by the department of justice that Americans are being employed in the Ruhr district by the French government to work the coal mines," Mr. Daugherty's letter said. "Although this information has not been officially confirmed, it is deemed advisable to call your attention to it."

Chicago Vice Clearing

Chicago.—Police Chief Charles C. Fitzmorris declared war upon all forms of vice in the city's downtown area at the front and rear entrances of every hotel, cafe and dance hall. Lone policemen in the work and six men in each squad. Every city hall employee will be put out of business by the new order, it was said. Chief Fitzmorris declared that he intended to work. "I am told," Chief Fitzmorris said, "that the vice conditions in the city are bad. I intend to investigate and, based upon the facts, I intend to clean up the city."

Suffrage Is Ratified

Denver, Col.—The lower House of the Colorado legislature ratified the woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution. The senate had previously ratified the amendment. In the senate by a vote of 23 to 12, and in the house by a vote of 46 to 19. The Delaware Legislature is expected to act on the amendment next week. The Colorado house also passed a bill subjecting women to jury duty.

Now Be Good!

Provo, Col.—Mrs. Elizabeth Espino was granted a divorce from her husband on confession, was sentenced to spend the next 30 days in the county jail, and to pay $50 for her children, by Fifteen Judge Ellis. Mrs. Espino was charged with the theft of $50 from her husband, and pleaded guilty. But if the fine was remitted and she was released from jail immediately, in her own house, to work out the fine at the rate of $1 a day.

Firm Firm Defendant

New York.—An insolvency petition in bankruptcy was filed in Federal court against the Fifth Avenue Art Corporation, producers and distributors of motion picture films. The petition was filed by creditors who claim that three films which the corporation produced have been withheld from exhibition. The Department of Justice has been asked to investigate the affairs of the firm.

Mrs. Sidney Hastings sickness, following influenza, has been reported prevalent in New York City, and Benny was the first to see the opportunity. There were so many persons sick that the demand for medicine was greater than the supply. Benny got a drug store and began to fill prescriptions. He made a million worth of new money, and he began to work out his own prescriptions. Benny got a drug store and began to fill prescriptions. He made a million worth of new money, and he began to work out his own prescriptions.

Benny got a drug store and began to fill prescriptions. He made a million worth of new money, and he began to work out his own prescriptions.

Deaths Show Increase

New York.—Smoking sickness, following influenza, has been reported prevalent in New York City, and Benny was the first to see the opportunity. There were so many persons sick that the demand for medicine was greater than the supply. Benny got a drug store and began to fill prescriptions. He made a million worth of new money, and he began to work out his own prescriptions.

Benny got a drug store and began to fill prescriptions. He made a million worth of new money, and he began to work out his own prescriptions.

Italians Are Aroused

New York.—A letter from General Cadorna, former commander in chief of the Italian army, published here, denying a recent statement of Premier Mussolini, that the "Chief of Staff" of the Italian army, General Diaz, Mussolini's counter disorganized the Italian army during the war, has been said Foch, of the French army, attributed the establishment on the arrival at Italian headquarters of Generals Foch and Weygand, French military officers.

"Go to Jericho, Joshua!"

Boston.—The vessel and the donkey have been displaced so far by the automobile in Palestine that the organization of motor trucks has become a problem. Jericho, the ancient city of Joshua, is to be a motor center for motor. Jericho, the ancient city of Joshua, is to be a motor center for motor. Jericho, the ancient city of Joshua, is to be a motor center for motor.

Jericho, the ancient city of Joshua, is to be a motor center for motor. Jericho, the ancient city of Joshua, is to be a motor center for motor.

BLOUSE HAS CALL

Garments Along Jasket Line Is in Great Demand.

Every Sort of Printed Material Is Used in the Important Spring Collections.

Odd and original jackets are likely to have a strong influence on blouses and on the dress of the future, according to the fashion experts who have been in the New York Tribune. No more are the blouse department of the shops able to do business on staple lines and store only slight changes from season to season. Now buyers, manufacturers and designers are on the alert to keep pace with the demand for novelties in this line. They must be perpetually seeking new lines to offer their customers, and many of them then in their search for originality are turning to the models of the world's greatest designers.

The most successful blousemakers report that blouses using Jacket lines are the ones in greatest demand by the retailers' shops. One right example this blouses must be very attractive and have a jacket effect to be sold. Many of these are fashioned after the old-time tailored mens' shirt, and Every sort of printed material is used, even the most expensive.

Prints will continue to be featured in all the important spring collections. These are fashioned in patterns in combinations such as seabrowns and blues, the latter usually carrying out one of the shades. One model shown in this way has the trimmed with navy blue crepe de chine in the form of a jacket, and a skirt with nine long-pointed ends. This model was made of printed crepe.

The matched silks also are extensively used. In these every sort of the rainbow is seen. It is not unusual to see one blouse in almond green and bright yellow. There are also many of the models made of the same blouses.

This chic overblouse of white crepe de chine is enriched by its printed pattern of red, black and yellow and the tucked collar, cuffs and belt.

LARGE HATS, THE PREDICTION

Important Looking Headgear to Be Worn With Dress Conforming Types.

It is certain that we shall wear very large and important looking hats this spring and summer, according to the Parisian correspondent of the Boston Transcript. The dress of the present conditions we shall continue faithful to the mode of the day, and if the mode of the day, and if the mode of the day, and if