KNEW WHAT SHE WANTED AND REFUSED SUBSTITUTES; NOW MRS. KYLE IS INDEED GLAD

Mrs. May Kyle, who lives at the Old Frankfort Pike, near Paris, was so strongly impressed by the advertisements appearing in the she read in the newspapers that she decided to try the medicine.

Not realizing that the genuine Peppers would only be obtained at the Drug Store, she went to a store to a certain drug store and asked for it. The clerk offered her Pepper but it was not packed in a yellow box and gold carton. Mrs. Kyle remembered these notes from reading the advertisements. The clerk insisted that the try it Mrs. Kyle absolutely refused and demanded the package she had specified. Not being able to obtain it, Mrs. Kyle left the store and went to another drug store on Main, where she properly secured the medicine.

That she is glad she insisted on obtaining the genuine Peppers is shown in her statement when she said: "I feel stronger already. Before I used Peppers I could hardly get my breath and I could hardly get an hour's rest at night. Now I can sleep like a baby and I feel stronger already. I think it is a wonderful medicine."

Mrs. Kyle, Jessie, aged 16, is also taking Peppers. It has given her a good appetite and made her feel stronger.

Mrs. Kyle lives in Buckeye, aged 8, has been taking Peppers and she is glad that she tried them.

Peppers are not counted when you buy a package of Peppers. You get what you want. Insist on Peppers.
