GOOD PROGRAM FOR CHAUTAUQUA

for children.

The Great Lazarad and Company, in their musical comedy novelty extraordinary, will give a centerstone entertainment on the ninth night. Elaborate and lavish stage settings are used in this production.

The closing number on the seventh day, Dr. E. T. Hagerman will give his inspiring address, "The Man with Open Windows." Preceding this notable lecture will be a concert by Mata's Blue and White Marimba band, seven Central American players, who are said to produce the most delightful harmonies at the New York Hippodrome and the many other metropolitan successes. They will give a free concert on the first night which will be a welcome invitation to a good Chautauqua week.

Four unique children's entertainments will be given in addition to the regular programs for adults, each of the four entertainments to be different. Everything from clever magic and ventriloquism, to stories about fairies and elves, will be included. Special novelties arrived with well filled packages for the children, and many good things to eat. The classes will be conducted by Miss Ruth Baker and Joe Bennett. Each child present for the enjoyable affair must bring a friend. MASSACHUSETTS SETTS TO KENTUCKY

Some months ago the publishers of The Youth's Companion sent to the Commissioner of Education of the State of Kentucky a number of books for them in choosing a subject for Kentucky's Historic Memorial Day.

As a result one of the books received was "The Kentucky Pioneers" by Edward Eggleston, and the Commissioner of Education of the State of Kentucky has written to the publishers of The Youth's Companion as follows:

"Blessed among Americans is the memory of the young mother, who, in her talks on the Kentucky frontier here in Massachusetts, has taught these children to manhood that not beware of their fate, and instilled in one and all in the face of a doubting world."

With the deepest gratitude The Youth's Companion dedicates this book to the people of Kentucky. It will appear on the first number in June.

ONE WAY TO GET RID OF WORTHLESS STOCK

When Al G. Barnes' circus was in Danville last week the management received a letter from Bill Hall of Rt. 2, Hills and had them to file with the circus. Hall is for any cheaper meat than horse some one now and it is probable that the country will be cleared of the horse meat industry before many months. Mr. Barnes' letter was as follows: Dear Sir: I am a boy 14 years old and I have a pony named Jack Hubble in the Shelby City section. That day he sold a 15 year-old pony, Daisy, by name to $1.500 and two of her sons, Joe Blackburn and Bill Hall, to Ed
