HALLEY'S TOBACCO SEED

Three varieties of Burley all standard and guaranteed. Select a variety best suited for your land and which will make you the most money.

If you want pounds we've got the seed; if you want color we can furnish that; if your land is sick or tired we can furish you seed that will get the best results on such soil.

"IMPROVED HALLEY" the whitest Burley grown, hardier than the original type and a better yielder. This seed produces color on all lands. Cigarette wrappers on fresh land.

"COLORY DISEASE RESISTANT" developed by the University of Kentucky and recommended for all lands which have grown considerable tobacco and soils where disease has appeared.

"COLORY TWIST BUD" an excellent variety where a heavy yield is desired. A great many people are calling for seed which produce more pounds. This tobacco combines color with yield.

PRICE $1.50 PER OUNCE

For sale by the HALLEY TOBACCO SEED CO., Fayette Whse. No. 1, Lexington, Kentucky or Mr. Jas. C. Blount, Mgr. Burley Co-op. Assn., Carlisle, Ky.

WANTED!
The Right Man

AN OLD, established, conservative Life Insurance Company wants a man, able and anxious to make an excellent income, to act as its representative in this county.

It goes without saying that he must be intelligent, active, of good character and reputation, well acquainted and well liked in his territory.

Experience in selling life insurance is preferable but not necessary.

If this description fits you, write me at once and I will give you detailed information. In replying, give your age and state whether married or single and in what work you have been engaged.

To the man who can qualify for the selling of life insurance, no other business offers greater opportunities for high earnings, advancement and independence.

L. L. ANDERSON
208 Speed Building
LOUISVILLE, KY.

"At Your Service"

NICHOLAS HOME TELEPHONE COMPANY, INC.

Do It Electrically

YOUR WASHING---
YOUR IRONING---
YOUR COOKING---
YOUR SWEEPING

You can now buy in Carlisle nearly any electric appliance you might wish, from Hair Curlers to Washing Machines.

ON DISPLAY AT VEACH'S STORE

Laundryette and Thor Washing Machines

Irons, Percolators, Toasters, Vacuum Cleaners, Etc.

CARLISLE ELECTRIC LIGHT & POWER COMPANY
INCORPORATED

SATURDAY IS THE DAY

Ford Touring Car and 11 Other Prizes
Will be Given Away!

Be Here==You May Be The Lucky One!

List of Prizes:

Ford Touring Car	Mesh Bag
Wardrobe Trunk	Carpet Sweeper
Rug- 9 x 12	Lady's Hat By Nancy Smoot
Kodak	25 Lbs. Sugar E. M. Casson
Pair Wool Blankets	25 Lbs. Flour LeGrande
Silk Umbrella	25 Lbs. Flour William Tell

How Prizes will be Awarded

Mr. [illegible] has been selected as manager of the awards. Not later than 1:30 p. m. on Saturday, January 26, the ticket stubs held by the various merchants will be yelivered to Mr. Ross in the Court House Yard, and placed in a locked barrel. A 2 p. m. some one will be selected from the crowd to draw tickets from the barrel. As each ticket is drawn, its number and prize drawn by that ticket will be set down on two blackboards in plain view of all. When the number of tickets, corresponding to the number of prizes, have been drawn out and the numbers placed on the blackboards, a half hour will be given to enable ticket-holders to look over their numbers. If at the end of the half hour, all of the prize-winning tickets have not been presented, a second drawing will be made, in the same manner, until those prizes remaining shall have been awarded.

The stubs remaining will be locked up in a barrel and placed in the vault at the circuit clerk's office, until January 26, when the stubs accumulated during that week will be placed in the barrel with the others and a second drawing made in the same way.

See Prizes at Harper's Garage

THE CARLISLE MERCURY.

VOL. LVII. CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1924 NUMBER 5

STATE BRIEFS

While attempting to pour some water in a coffee urn, Mrs. James Shaw, of Richmond, was severely burned.

Robert H. Hayes, of Lancaster, has been engaged as resident counsel for the Burley Tobacco Growers Association.

A hotel and five store buildings in Franklin, Simpson county, were destroyed by fire Sunday, entailing a loss estimated at $150,000.

Mrs. J. Campbell Cantrill, widow of the late Congressman Cantrill, was elected state librarian at a joint meeting of the legislature last week.

Thomas Hoover, of Clinton county, serving three years for malicious cutting, was given the first pardon granted by Governor Fields last week.

One negro was injured and four others narrowly escaped when a passenger train struck a bus loaded with colored people at a crossing in Winchester Monday.

Dr. John C. Acheson, president of the Kentucky College for Women at Danville, has been offered the position of president of McAlester College at St. Paul, Minn.

The United States Weather Bureau states that the current cold wave in the South is worth millions to cotton growers as it will destroy large numbers of boll weevil.

Rush Meadows, ball player, and his brother, Okey Meadows, who conduct a coal yard in Paris, were arrested in Paris Sunday on a charge of having liquor in their possession.

Mrs. Thomas Mayo, 83, mother of the late John C. C. Mayo, millionaire coal man and once Democratic national committeeman from Kentucky, died at her home in Paintsville last week.

The home of Rose Young at Willow Shoals, Lee county, was destroyed by fire last Thursday. Two of the children were fatally burned, while ...

FIELDS RECOMMENDS REDUCTION ON LAND

25 PER CENT REDUCTION ON FARM LANDS RECOMMENDED IN SECOND MESSAGE

Advocating a readjustment of the entire tax system of Kentucky, Governor W. J. Fields, in his second message to the general assembly, delivered in person Monday afternoon, recommended a 25 per cent reduction in the present state tax on real estate.

The state rate on real estate is 40 cents on the $100 and if the recommendation of Governor Fields becomes a law the state rate on real estate will be reduced to 30 cents. Other recommendations embodied in the message follow.

An appropriation of $10,000 for the employment of a consulting engineer and an expert accountant to investigate the affairs of the State Highway Commission.

An appropriation of $1,500 for the employment of an expert from the American Prison Association to investigate the law governing the State Board of Charities and Corrections and its administration by the board.

To prohibit the sale of toy pistols.

To require competitive bidding on all supplies for the state in excess of $1,000.

To make the carrying of concealed deadly weapons without a license a felony.

To prohibit persons in intoxicated condition from driving automobiles and to impose a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 and revocation of license for first offense. Upon second conviction offenders are to receive penitentiary sentences of not less than one nor more than three years.

FORMER LOCAL PEOPLE TO SAIL FOR EUROPE

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dalzelle, of Cynthiana, formerly of this city, will sail from New York on February 2 on Clark's specially chartered White Star Line Steamship, "Baltic," for the Mediterranean and points in Europe. The return trip will be made on March 29.

NICHOLAS PRODUCE CROP WORTH $335,891 IN 1923

A statement of the business of the Blue Grass Produce Company, published elsewhere in this issue, discloses the fact that this company paid out for produce during the year 1923, $335,891, or $107.31 for each working day in the year. ...

POWER PLANT NOW SEEMS CERTAINTY

GIGANTIC DAM AT FALMOUTH WOULD EXTEND 70 MILES UP LICKING RIVER

3,500,000 POUNDS LEAF DELIVERED

THREE QUARTERS OF MILLION POUNDS DELIVERED HERE DURING PAST WEEK

An average of 150,000 pounds of ...

CARLISLE PENNY LUNCH ROOM IS USED AS MODEL

A bulletin from the State Parent-Teacher Association at Louisville has the following complimentary article about the penny lunch room in operation at the Carlisle city schools.

"Carlisle is on the map! Their school lunch room is used as a ...

COLORED MAN WINS FORD TOURING CAR

ELIJAH THOMPSON HOLDS THE LUKCY TICKET. 11 OTHER AWARDS MADE

Elijah Thompson, colored, was the winner of the Ford touring car given under the auspices of the Carlisle Merchants Trade Extension Club at the awarding of prizes held last Saturday. The winning ticket was 101322. Thompson held only two tickets. All prizes were awarded on the first drawing of tickets with the exception of the rug, three drawings being necessary before the winning ticket showed up.

The other prizes awarded and the numbers which drew them were as follows: Wardrobe trunk, No. 141713 Mrs. James Wade; 9x12 rug, No. 128325, Mrs. Robert C. Berry; pair wool blankets, No. 147427, Mrs. Fannie Sanford; kodak, No. 032157, Kash Hostettler; umbrella, No. 157762, Mrs. D. H. Cannon; mesh bag, No. 141314, Mrs. C. U. Bramblett; carpet sweeper, No. 106654, Jack Galligher; ladies hat, No. 017007, Mrs. W. W. Palmer; 25 lbs. sugar, No. 142391, Harry Vinson; 24 pounds White Rose Flour, No. 126560, O. H. Jolly; 24 pounds Wm. Tell Flour, No. 143014, S. W. Mathers.

A total of 21 prizes were given away during the trade weeks campaign, nine having been given on the Saturday before.

Practically every merchant in Carlisle gave tickets during the time and all were well pleased with the results. The merchants have requested The Mercury to express their sincere appreciation to their friends for the patronage accorded them during the campaign.

From a financial standpoint, no more profitable campaign was ever put on in Carlisle. Everyone who has traded here during the period in which the tickets were given should be convinced that Carlisle merchants will give them the same values for the same money as any place in the world and should adopt for their slogan, "Trade At Home."

HOME COMING DAY AT THE NORTH MIDDLETOWN CHURCH

30 YEARS AGO

Thursday, February 2, 1894

Victor Ross appointed postmaster at Morning Glory.

Died—Infant of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Herrington, of the county, on Jan. 26.

Albert Gardner takes position as traveling salesman for the Virginia Cigar Company.

Thieves steal two fancy vests from T. J. Glenn out of wardrobe on back porch of his home.

Louisville newspaper boosting G. R. Keller, of this city as a candidate for Secretary of State.

Many visitors attended hop at St. Cloud hotel Wednesday night, given by the Young Men's Institute.

Financial statement of the Carlisle Creamery Co. discloses a profit of $6,000 during the past 10 months.

Chas. B. Morford, formerly of this city, announces as a candidate for County Judge of Robertson county.

Rev. W. H. Johnson, of St. Louis, accepts call to pastorate of Carlisle Christian church, and will preach his first sermon Sunday.

Mt. Olivet swept by most disastrous fire in its history Saturday morning, nearly all of the business part of the town being destroyed.

F. B. Henry buys the John W. Campbell property on East Main street for 2,500, and Mr. Campbell buys residence from M. J. Archdeacon for $1,800.

Married—Miss Edith Robinson, of Mayslick, and Mr. Chas. T. Sousley, of Blue Licks, at Maysville.—Miss Pearl Robinson, of Mayslick, and Mr. Charles Thomas, of Blue Licks, at Maysville.—At Sharpsburg last week a triple wedding occurred when three members of the same family, two sisters and a brother, were married. The participants were Miss Lida Dimmitt and Mr. Harry Berry, Miss Annie L. Berry and Mr. C. L. Sanders and Miss Claudia V. Berry and Mr. E. P. Clark.

HONOR ROLL OF THE CITY SCHOOL

FEBRUARY TERM BEGINS TUESDAY

CHRISTIAN CHURCH CALLS MINISTER

THRIFT PROGRAM AT CITY SCHOOL