THE CARLISLE MERCURY.

ESTABLISHED 1867

VOL. LXII. CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCK?, THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1924. NUMBER 26

BOND ISSUE HELD VALID BY COURT

State's Highest Tribunal Decides Law Constitutional in that It Contains One Subject

TO SUBMIT IT IN NOVEMBER

The [illegible] will be held in the [illegible] be constitutional and the question now goes to a popular vote of the people at the November election.

In an opinion by Judge Ernest Clarke, the court held that the [illegible] provided the recent [illegible] for the issuance of $4,000,000 in [illegible] for the Franklin circuit court, who [illegible] bond law unconstitutional.

The court held that the law was [illegible] that it contained [illegible] one subject, which was [illegible] bonds for the building [illegible] roads in the state.

The [illegible] carlisle [illegible] will be [illegible] January 1 1925.

2 BOYS 1 GIRL ARE SHOT BY DRY RAIDERS

[illegible] Kelly and three [illegible] were shot [illegible] here [illegible] under the [illegible] Volstead act [illegible] work on the charge of shooting [illegible] are wanting to see [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]