Diamonds of Malopo

by

VICTOR ROUSSEAU

COPYRIGHT BY W.G.CHAPMAN

CHAPTER II—Winston, en route to his mine, finds the town of Tandale deserted. He learns that the natives have left for the Witt diamond fields. Further inquiries show his identity is known to Ferrier, who is the agent and part owner of the mine Winston has bought, and to Mr. Burns, manager of the Witt diamond fields, who has also purchased from Ferrier the mine Winston has just abandoned. Winston is now determined to get back to the mine at any cost.

CHAPTER III—Winston finds Malopo the native who had worked for him at the mine at the Witt diamond fields. Malopo has friendship Winston has similarly in the past, and he is willing to act as an agent of the mine owner. Winston tells Malopo to get a number of natives and meet him at the rendezvous. He will then go to Tandale and, with Malopo's men, seize the mine.

CHAPTER IV—Winston finds Malopo in charge of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER V—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER VI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER VII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER VIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER IX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER X—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XXXIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XL—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XLIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER L—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER LXXXIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XC—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER XCIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER C—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXIV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXV—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXVI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXVII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXVIII—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXIX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXX—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of the only newspaper in Mud Burie, besides being the owner of the mine. He is also the proprietor of the hotel and the owner of the only bar in the town.

CHAPTER CXXI—Winston finds Malopo in control of the mine. Malopo has driven off the Witt diamond fields and has forcibly dispossessed the interlopers. Winston is now the owner of the mine. He is also the editor of