STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Ambassador Jusserand will soon return to France after 12 years of service here.

John H. Williams, of Somerset, has been appointed to the consular service at Coatzacoalcos, Mexico.

The third annual convention of the Kentucky League of Women Voters will be held in Louisville this week.

Allen Kidwell, of Sharpsburg, was electric road engineer of Bath county at opening of the fiscal court last week.

The first consolidated school of Versailles has passed the stage of advertising and has begun to receive pupils.

An eight-thirty pig was removed from the stomach of the two months old daughter of Chas. Sartori, of Mercer county, in Maysville surgeon.

William Bryant secured merchant was shot and badly wounded at Richmond by James Lee following an argument over a trifling transaction.

Rev. Thomas Hall, pastor of the Christian church at Maysville, took charge of the church at Mount Olivet. He succeed Rev. Mr. Cutmore, who resigned the crop here year.

Fayette county farmers are shocking their corn in the shock preparatory to cutting and shredding it. Most of this year's crop will be cut Monday.

Thomas Bourbon county farmer was instantly killed when a wagon he was driving was struck by a passenger train near Paris.

William L. Doherty, 11 died at Lexington yesterday from gunshot wounds received on the Versailles pike.

Miss Nell Hughes, daughter of the late Judge Hughes, and one of the most prominent women of the county died Monday at the residence in Paris. She had sustained wife in bed with a wrecked shield in car.

Thomas Bourbon