STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Six storks were destroyed by fire at Brodhead, Rockcastle county, entailing a loss of $40,000.

The city council of Falmouth has passed resolutions putting a ban on all business in that place on the Sabbath.

Finishing touches will be put on the Dix River dam of the Kentucky Hydro-Electric Company January 1, superintendent of the company has announced.

Two captains, a lieutenant and three patrolmen have been dismissed from the Louisville police force for having participated in a poker game at a Louisville hotel.

Ben Jenkins, negro, was sentenced to five years in the state reformatory by a jury in the Fayette circuit court at Lexington Monday on a charge of false swearing.

While feeding a mule, on his farm in Montgomery county, R. M. Larkins was painfully injured when the mule grabbed his hand and bit off the thumb at the first joint.

Mrs. Harry McCarty, of Nicholasville, was re-elected president of the Kentucky division, United Confederate Veterans, at the annual meeting held in Lexington last week.

Mrs. Robert McDonald, Miss Daisy and Master May Richardson, all of Winchester, were seriously injured when the car driven by Robert McDonald crashed over a 12-foot embankment.

Mrs. Harry McCarty, of Nicholasville, was reelected president of the Kentucky division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, in the twenty-eighth annual convention held in Frankfort last week.

The fourth General Reid of the Bourbon county Confederate Veterans died on Friday attracted large crowds and was a most successful event. There was a large exhibition of farm products.

Wilbur Wells, 14 years old, escaped himself to the burning home in Shelby county. He is the second 14-year-old boy to be saved by hanging in Shelby county within the past two weeks.

Robert Smith Wilhoite, 16, negro, of Cynthiana, a cadet of the Cynthiana National Band, and interested in all school enterprises of that place, died at his home Monday after several months illness.

Dr. J. A. Dodson, of Maysville, was elected Grand Master, and Cynthiana was chosen as the place for the 1925 convention, by the Grand Lodge of Free Masons in session at Lexington last week.

W. Home Lewis, prominent Louisville attorney and president of the board of curators of Transylvania college, made a donation of $25 toward the campaign for funds for the institution, it was announced Monday.

Hoke Patterson, 18 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson, of Cynthiana, was burned to death before her mother's eyes when her clothing caught fire and became ignited and the flames enveloped the child.

The Bakers' price that has been paid for corn, advanced recently in some time was when 25 acres, near Bush Station distillery, owned by Mrs. Annie Hanks, was purchased by the distillery by Stanley Routt at $2,742.50.

Eight hundred county farmers were there to see and taste before Judge Graves of Kentucky's best work for lichen to remove weeds, chinch bugs and everything living along the ticks of way of the high ways between their fields.

Rev. E. H. Reynolds, of Mt. Sterling, was badly burned on the face and hands when a can of gasoline exploded in his home last week. He escaped the flaming can and threw it out a door, preventing destruction of the residence.

The name of the Rev. William F. Gwynn, pastor of Methodist church at Newport, was cleared last week when a Campbell county grand jury allowed charges brought against him by Anabel Fisher, 20 years old, negro, to die for lack of proof.

Mrs. Beulah Vance Lindsay, on trial in the circuit court on charges of conspiracy in connection with the death of her first husband, Chas. Vance, was released Saturday without bail when the jury said it reported that it was unable to reach a verdict.

A verdict committed in Magoffin county Monday night was quickly brought in Tuesday with the arrest of a man claimed to be Bud Cullins, at Ashland. Cullins, it is charged, killed Bailey Hunt in a home when the two met on a road. He escaped following the shoot-ing.

Bob Harvey, while digging a grave for Sam Day, who died from gunshot wounds received in a fight near Jeffersonville, Montgomery county, was shot in the right arm at the fallen burying ground, about three miles from Jeffersonville, by Bruce Reed. Reed's father, Floyd Reed, a deputy sheriff, was killed by Harvey on June 7, when he went with officers to arrest Harvey's son, Claude Harvey.
