KENTUCKY NEWS BRIEFS

The state encampment of Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held at Lexington July 2-3.

Judge A. M. J. Cochran imposed fines aggregating $10,422 in federal court at Lexington last week.

A. B. Hisle, 76, former county clerk of Tillman county, died at his home in Flemingsburg last week.

Hunter Enright, 13, was instantly killed by a Louisville & Nashville train at Paris when he was struck by the engine.

Eight hills in a population census week of April 1 were reported by the United Boy's Work Campaign.

Fifty-three applications in the Clinton district reached a total of 23,000 acres, according to reports of the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture. Mother Nature's exuberance, made in 1641, when she created Kentucky, evidently has been fulfilled to all appearances, to the present time.

Fifty-seven carloads of apples were received from the Kentucky Fruit Growers' Association during the week ending April 25, bringing the total for the season to 227 carloads
