RESULTS THAT LAST

Proven By Carlisle People

Thousands of kidney sufferers have tried remedy after remedy with only temporary benefit. Is it any wonder that many are discouraging? But one kidney remedy has earned a reputation for lasting results and there's plenty of proof right here in Carlisle.

Read the experience of one who used Doan's Pills years ago and now makes her endorsement even stronger:

Mrs. E. A. Thomas, 400 E. Main St., Carlisle, says: "I had severe backache. I had dizzy spells and often had to grasp something for fear of falling. My kidneys were weak and I felt tired and nervous. After using Doan's Pills, my kidneys were regulated and all other troubles left."

Mrs. Thomas gave the above statement Nov. 16, 1920 and on May 3, 1924, she added: "I haven't had a sign of kidney trouble since Doan's cured me."

392 CHILDREN ARE EXAMINED HERE

School Students and Babies Weighed and Measured At Clinics Here

MANY DEFECTS FOUND

Much interest was shown in the child health conference held at the court house last Friday. Twenty-eight pre-school children and three school children, with their interested parents, were in attendance. Drs. O. E. Kash, B. F. Reynolds, J. W. Bailey and C. W. Kash gave generously of their time in conducting the examinations. Mrs. A. T. Gardner, Mrs. Will Clark and Mrs. Virgie Rankin served faithfully in aiding Miss Dieterich in weighing and weigh the children.

Each mother was eager to see whether she was succeeding or failing and how it stacked up with other babies. The following children were guided along the road to health:

Annie Laurie Elizabeth A. Clark, George Snelling, Robert C. Crutcher, M. E. Hamilton, James Ockerman, Mary Jean Ockerman, Frances L. Ockerman, D. Blake, Everett Ray Sherrel, Morgan Stone, Meade Gilbert, Estrella J. Mann, Paul Robert Neal, Marie Sherrel, Eva Mae Bradley, Mary Ann Sexton, Helen Linville, Helen J. Henry, Frank Sherrel, Jr., Jean Marshall, Pauline Linville, Billy Brothers, Pauline Linville, Alice Alexander, Bobby Harper, Jane Harper, Jane Stone.

All of the students of the city school were weighed and measured and weighed by Miss Florence L. Haswell last week. She was engaged in the work by Drs. O. S. Kash, C. W. Kash, B. F. Reynolds, J. W. Bailey, T. P. Scott, A. T. Gardner, S. T. Hutchings and G. T. Cowan. The following statistics were secured as the following the examination:

364 children were examined, 92 per cent of them showing one or more physical defects. Only one of them, or 7 per cent, showed apparent defects.

81 of them or 15 per cent showed abnormal tonsils. 21 or 2.90 per cent had tonsils that should receive the immediate attention of the family physician. These were the tonsils that had three or four plus marks after them.

247 or 68 per cent needed dental cleaning. 279 or 77 per cent need ed extractions or cavities filled. Attention to the teeth in early childhood means better health and less expense later in life.

128 or 35 per cent were 7 per cent or more underweight and need attention to the correction of their defects as long as they can. Care and attention to sufficient rest and food in proper balance.

89 or 16 per cent had eye strain. If glasses are not at once given the physical damage is done, the eye is often strengthened and the glasses may be left off later as the child grows.

Two Racetracks Lose $120,000

Dade Park And Rossland Lost Heavy Sums During Year, Secretary Of Association Says

The Dade Park and Rossland race tracks have not paid their losses for the past year, and will not do so, because they have not the funds with which to pay them, according to Thomas B. Cromwell, secretary of the Thoroughbred Racing Association. The two tracks lost more than $120,000 during the last season, he declared.

The unpaid losses were due from the Dade Park and Rossland tracks become a lien on their property, Mr. Cromwell said. Mr. Hanchett, Mr. Shanks, State Auditor, said at Frankfort Monday, adding that he "had no fear but what they would be collected."

Although without immediate access to his records, Mr. Cromwell said he recalled having received letters from the two tracks a few days before the December 1 interest due, stating that they were without funds to pay them.

"That new will have to pay the 5 per cent penalty added, which will, I recall, is 10 per cent, in addition to interest of 6 per cent," the Auditor said.

Motorists continue to be slow in appearing at the office of County Clerk Westfall to obtain their license tags for 1926. Only a few more than 200 have been issued to date. Unless there is a material increase in the number of persons who apply to obtain their tags during the coming week many will be unable to obtain their tags before January 1, when a fine will be put in force.

During 1925, approximately 1200 tags were issued for motor vehicles here, and about the same number will be issued during the coming year, as Carlisle and Nicholas county population remains about the same. ALLEGED CHICKEN THIEVES CAPTURED

Ed and Hugh Hunter Pursue Men Who Robbed Chicken House, Capturing One

2 OTHERS IMPLICATED

A midnight automobile race beginning near Blue Licks and ending near Carlisle, during which the pursuers fired a number of shots at the machine in front, resulted in the capture of one of the fugitives, the recovery of twenty-six stolen chickens and the breaking of one man in jail over the highlights in an episode rivalling a movie thriller which occurred in this county Saturday night.

Shortly after midnight Saturday, Ed Hunter, who resides near Blue Lick Springs, was awakened by noises originating in his chicken house. He arose, dressed and called to his brother, Hugh. While they were dressing three men were seen to enter the chicken house and in front of the Hunter home, with chickens. Before the owners of the chickens got to the door the car was started rapidly down the road and pinted, the Hunters started in pursuit in an automobile. Several unsuccessful efforts were made to overtake the fleeing car, but Ed Hunter fired the shotgun into the air several times in an attempt to frighten the men into stopping, but they refused to stop without result.

The alleged thefts turned their car onto the Carlisle and Paris pike at Maysville pike and when they reached the Ellis Ford road turned to the Lower Jacksonian road. About the time they reached the mouth of the Hunter machine passed another about a short distance and the chase continued. Ed Hunter fired the shotgun and pistol the Hunters had in their automobile, but no more were in the machine, and continued. The chase was then abandoned. It was said that the car would be identified by the number of the license tag.

Two of the men asked to go to the state of George Westfall, a short distance away, on some pretext, and when near the state rose, made their escape.

The other man was held until the Hunters had time to notify Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff L. B. Hughes who was captured at Millersburg giving his home as Maysville. Not when about 25 pounds of the chickens of the other two men in Charley and Bob Mitchell, also of Maysville. Warrants charging them with chickens stealing were sent to Maysville authorities.
