KENTUCKY NEWS BRIEFS

By a majority of more than 1,100 votes, Boyd county Saturday passed a $600,000 road bond issue.

In an election held in Boone county, a $400,000 road bond issue was passed by an overwhelming majority.

Frank McCoy, 28 years old, was killed instantly when his automobile was struck by a passenger train at a crossing near Catlettsburg.

William Thomas, of Boyd county, died in the Frankfort prison Friday night a few hours after he had been pardoned by Governor Fields.

Prominent Eastern Democrats are said to be booming Senator-elect Alben W. Barkley as a running mate for Al Smith for President.

Thieves blew the safe in the post office at Cardinal, Harlan county, last week and escaped with between $500 and $700 in stamps and cash.

The Mt. Olivet Tribune Democrat has started its fifty-third year of publication. John W. Adler, who established the paper, is still publisher.

Frank Henderson, 47 years old, died in a hospital at Pineville from injuries suffered when he was knocked from a tree four feet-ledge by a goat.

A total of $82,480.67 in September and $47,742.11 in October, the state inheritance collections were announced by the state tax commissioner Monday.

H. B. Franklin, of Carbonville, Pa., was severely burned Saturday when he automobile was struck by a passenger train on South Broad Way, Lexington.

Three large moonshine stills and six processors were confiscated by Fleming county officers and prohibition officials in a series of raids on Licking river.

Lexington's annual Thanksgiving 200 football have attracted 10,000 to Henderson from the Thanksgiving game at Cleveland between Centre and Transylvania.

A request that Governor Fields request a constitutional convention to revise the state's system of taxation was received by the governor in behalf of the legislature, is embodied in a resolution adopted by the Kentucky Federation of Women Voters last week.

Fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed the tipple and power house of the White Star Coal Company at Pineville, entailing a loss of $40,000.

The state printing commission Monday awarded the state printing contracts for the state for the next two years to the Standard Printing company of Louisville. Rosen was awarded the contract for the binding.

E. L. Medford, former cashier of the Bank of Hazard, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by a jury in Circuit court at Hazard Saturday morning. After being convicted on a count, it attempted to commit suicide.

Rev. B. F. Hayden, former pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, recently underwent an operation at Lourdes hospital for the amputation of his leg.

Denton Qualles, 20 years old, was killed instantly when he was struck by a passenger train at Bowling Green while walking on the railroad track. He was struck by a box on a tele-phone pole which he was carrying on the running board of an automobile driven by Andrew Hensley, 22, who also was killed.

Porter Lawson, 41, was found dead in bed at a hospital in Louisville Saturday morning. He suffered two days before when a fall-ing tree struck him. Coroner Lee Helm conducted an inquest shortly after Lawson's death and decided that death was due to natural causes.

William Wortley, editor of the Hazard Herald, and Miss Elizabeth Combs of the Enterprise Leader, both lead-ing newspapers of Hazard, eloped Saturday of last week. Shortly after the ceremony was performed Rev. Wortley and Colo were ordained for the ministry by Presbytery of Kentucky.

Clarence W. Henderson, Olive Hill, last week was named a member of the state board of charities and corrections to succeed Lawson E. Hager, whose term expires next January. Mr. Henderson is serving on charges of rape.

BANTA HONOR ROLL

First Grade—Special honor, Lelia Belle Hardwick; 2. Grade—Special honor, Lelia Belle Hardwick; 2. Grade—Special honor, Lelia Belle Hardwick; 3. Grade—Special honor, Lelia Belle Hardwick; 4. Grade—Special honor, Lelia Belle Hardwick; 5. Grade—Special honor, Lelia Belle Hardwick; 6. Grade—Special honor, Lelia Belle Hardwick; 7. Grade—Special honor, Lelia Belle Hardwick;