More Value than the Price Suggests

In the year just closing we at a close the price of Dodge Brothers Motor Cars was made daily.

Yet during this period more important improvements were incorporated than in any year in Dodge Brothers history.

Current prices—made possible, of course, by constantly increasing production—show an obvious measure of value. Prices, it has been never told the full story of Dodge Brothers' dependability and lasting worth.

Get more, more than ever before, than in any other value than the price suggests.
