PLAY GREAT SUCCESS

"The Mummy and the Mumps" On Of Best Ever Given Here

"The Mummy and the Mumps," a snappy farce comedy, by Larry Johnson, kept a large audience in laughter through its three acts when presented under the auspices of the Senior class of the Carlisle high school last Tuesday night. The play was pronounced by many as the best home talent production ever given here, and the class of the play afforded the cast many laughprovoking situations.

The entertainment was staged under the direction of Mrs. E. I. Pfanstiel, and the cast of characters was admirably chosen. The stage settings were beautiful. The play was conspicuously lacking awkward waits and forgotten lines, each member of the cast having his part well learned, and the entire production was "put over" with ease and enthusiasm rarely seen in home talent plays. Much of the success is due to the faithful work of Mrs. Pfanstiel.

To single out any individual member of the cast for special honors would be a difficult task. While most of the comedy situations fell to Arnold Mattox, and were well handled, Misses Lyda Ray, as Agatha Laidley, principal of the school, and Mae Porter, as Dulcie Dumble, created many laughs with their parts.

Not only was "The Mummy and the Mumps" a success from an entertainment standpoint, but it was a pronounced success financially, more than $100 being realized.

PRELUDE

(By E. R. Greenwood in Good Housekeeping)

These are madcap April days—
Magic hides down country ways.
Every sprite that flaunts a feather
Carols in the golden weather.

Woodlands that have known the snow
Feel the quiet undertow
Of the current of new dreams
Where the ardent sunlight gleams.

Every willow now unfurls
Saffron flags where ripple pearls
When the sun-warm rain has lost
Lace like silver on the land.

Even in the hearts of men
Breaks the ancient song again—
Fan lies to the sun and basks,
And we go dreaming at our tasks.

According to a story once widely believed, March 4 was chosen as the date for the inauguration of the President of the United States because Benjamin Franklin found that on this date fell one hundred fewer times than any other during the next two centuries.

JAIL UNFIT FOR HUMANS

Committee From Bench— Woman's Club Declares In Report

Mrs. W. B. Ardery, Miss Helen Hutchcraft and Mrs. T. B. Crockett, appointed by the Bourbon County Woman's Club to investigate alleged insanitary conditions at the Bourbon county infirmary and Bourbon county jail, entered conditions at both institutions. The committee described the living quarters of negro inmates of the infirmary as filthy, while the white quarters were said to be sufficient. Concerning conditions at the jail the report said:

"In the opinion of your committee the jail is unfit for an animal den, and certainly not for human habitation. It seemed to your committee to be a fit place only for the breeding of disease and dissemination of germs. The four compartments are dreadfully overcrowded, almost no ventilation on the ground floor, and absolutely none on the second floor. In fact, with no way to ventilate the upper floor and poor ventilation on the ground floor it impressed your committee as an ideal place for the development and spreading of tuberculosis and other diseases.

"In one compartment we saw a young white girl confined with a negress. The negress was confined on a charge of drunkenness. The white girl was compelled to stay in this apartment because the jail afforded no other place for her.

"The odor of the jail was very little less revolting than the colored quarters, and with no facilities to sanitation, it is impossible with our present jail."

VOLUME LX. ESTABLISHED 1867 CARLISLE NICHOLAS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 1927 PUBLISHED THURSDAYS NUMBER 16

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

PURE BRED STOCK TO BE GIVEN AWAY

Heifer, Ewe, Gilt And Pen of Chickens To Be Awarded Farmers Here

PLANS MADE FOR TRAIN

An enthusiastic meeting of the committee in charge of arrangements for the visit of the Pure Bred Sires Special train to Carlisle on Monday, May 2, was held at the court house Monday afternoon. Final arrangements for the visit of the train were made.

Innes B. Ross, chairman of the committee, presided at the meeting.

In addition to the pure bred bull to be traded to some Nicholas county farmer for a scrub sire, a pure bred registered Hereford heifer, a pure bred registered South-down ewe, a registered gilt and a pure bred pen of chickens will be given as prizes to Nicholas county farmers.

The awards will be given through drawings. Tickets will be distributed among the farmers and each one present will be given an opportunity in the drawing.

The heifer will be taken from the herd of M. D. Judy, near Moorefield. Mr. Judge will donate a part of the value of the animal. The ewe will be taken from the flock of Harry Letton, and Mr. Letton will contribute half of the value of the animal. W. D. Wyatt and Forrest Dalzell will contribute the gilt and M. T. Rudell will contribute the pen of chickens.

In addition to a splendid lot of vigorous young purebred bulls, two other big cars of exhibits to delight the eye of the farmer will be carried on the train. While the ceremony of "swapping" a purebred bull for a scrub sire will be the big event, all of the exhibits will be well worth seeing.

On the train will be quite a jolly crowd of good-fellows, breeders, bankers, railroad officials, experts from the College of Agriculture, commission men, editors, reporters, photographers and business men. It will be a fine bunch for our own business men, professional men and farmers to meet and greet while they are in our city for a short stay."

Citizens of the county should realize that the train is no advertising scheme, but a definite and very sincere effort toward developing a greater interest in purebred livestock and better farming in our own Kentucky. Mark this date on your calendar and prepare to spend a few profitable and enjoyable hours in Carlisle. This will be one of the biggest events for farmers of the year and is for the benefit of the farmers.

Final Lyceum Number Tonight

The Boyds and Katherine Gutchell To Give Concert At City Hall At 8 O'Clock

At the city hall tonight the concluding number on the lyceum course sponsored by the Woman's Club and the Chamber of Commerce will be given at 8 o'clock when the Boyds and Katherine Gutchell present a high class recital program enlivened with humorous sketches, impersonations and readings. This is said to be the best number in the course of five entertainments.

E. Henri Boyd is a baritone, Blanche Fermon Boyd is a coloratura soprano. They have sung and played together since they were children, and their voices blend perfectly. Their dramatic numbers, impersonations and comedy sketches are clever, distinctive and exclusive, written especially for and copyrighted by them.

Katherine Gutchell is a noted pianiste, reader, recital artist and maker of Q. R. S. piano rolls.

The Boyds and Miss Gutchell appear with a small deficit for the series of entertainments and citizens of Carlisle are asked to help it large numbers to attend this last performance. A pleasant evening's entertainment is promised.

NICHOLAS COUNTY'S ASSESSMENT STANDS

State Tax Commission To Accept Report of Local Tax Commissioner

FIRST TIME IN YEARS

Nicholas county's tax valuation as reported by Tax Commissioner Jim Will Martin after two weeks of hard work of assessors, will stand. Nicholas is not listed in the twenty-seven counties given out by the State Tax Commission Saturday that were raised. Nearly all of the counties adjacent to Nicholas were given boosts in their assessments.

This is one of the few years in which the assessment of Nicholas county as not been increased. Now for after the board of supervisors had gone over the assessment the year the total valuation showed a slight increase over the year before, and it was felt the assessment would stand.

The total valuation of the property, including assets, as certified to the State Tax Commission, is approximately ten and one-half millions of dollars. Commissioner Martin was assured by the Tax Commission that if the valuation was brought up to a slight figure above last year no blanket increase would be made.

The suit is the outgrowth of a full page advertisement published by the Commercial Appeal in which it was stated that a publication published statement of the Press-Scimitar's circulation was false.

Scout Executive To Speak Monday

J. R. Benjamin Winchester, Coming Here In Interest Of Extending Work

J. R. Benjamin, Scout Executive of Daniel Boone Council of Kentucky, Boy Scouts of America, will be in Carlisle on April 25, and will speak to the boys of Carlisle and Nicholas county at the court house at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Benjamin will also speak at the Carlisle city school to the Junior and Senior classes at 10 a. m. Monday, April 25.

Every boy in Carlisle and Nicholas county is earnestly requested to hear Mr. Benjamin at one or both of these meetings. A special invitation is extended to the boys in the high school. It is hoped that every person who is interested in Scouting will come and help to make this a better community in which to live. This is a good work and we should help all they can to give the boys a chance to make clean men of them and to better able to take the places in the churches, schools, and county affairs and all to the end that better men are needed. We want to organize an additional troop.

Party Returning Home From Louisville Hurt When Car Leaves Road

CUT BY FLYING GLASS

While returning home last Friday afternoon from Louisville, where they had accompanied the body of Mrs. Ben Ellis, taken to various Louisville orphanages, R. L. Curtis, Colville Talbert, Howard Veach, D. W. Sapp and R. L. Talbert had a narrow escape when the automobile in which they were riding left the road, plunged through a fence and overturned three miles the other side of Frankfort.

Colville Talbert, who was driving the car, was perhaps the most seriously injured. He suffered a long, jagged cut in the hand which required several stitches to close. He also sustained other contusions and bruises. Mr. Curtis suffered severe cuts on the hands by the flying glass in the car and Mr. Sapp suffered a deep gash on the right hand. Mr. Veach and Mr. Talbert's injuries were minimized.

Mr. Curtis, Mr. Talbert and Mr. Sapp left Carlisle in the morning to speak to the boys of Carlisle and Nicholas county at the court house that night.

Mr. Benjamin will also speak at the Carlisle city school to the Junior and Senior classes at 10 a. m. Monday, April 25.

Every boy in Carlisle and Nicholas county is earnestly requested to hear Mr. Benjamin at one or both of these meetings. A special invitation is extended to the boys in the high school. It is hoped that every person who is interested in Scouting will come and help to make this a better community in which to live. This is a good work and we should help all they can to give the boys a chance to make clean men of them and to better able to take the places in the churches, schools, and county affairs and all to the end that better men are needed. We want to organize an additional troop.

D. W. Sapp, Scout Master, Troop No. 1, Carlisle, Kentucky.
