Last week a summons on indictment, by the grand jury, was officially served on J. W. Rogers, principal of the Myers high school, by Deputy Sheriff Stamper. Think of that, Mr. Rogers quickly replied, "I never did nobody no harm and nothin' never did nobody to me," and asked the nature of the charge. The officer replied, "Owning and keeping a dog without said dog being licensed." Think of that. Mr. Rogers said, "I never owned any dog, but my grandson did, and same was paid up and receipts to date notwithstanding the dog has been very dead several months. Think of that." The officer said "I am commanded to summon Will Rogers," and left too quickly for Mr. Rogers to tell him to see Will Rogers of Movie - fame, he might be the right man. Will Rogers is not the teacher's name. Think of that.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Crawford, last Friday, a bouncing baby daughter. She is said to be the name of Laura Lee Crawford.

LYRIC THEATRE

Harper's Garage reports the sale of five Ford cars since their last report.

Frank Henry has taken a position as traveling salesman for the Carlisle Mill and Supply Company.

Verna Stone has purchased the grocery store of E. F. Wilson on East Main street and has taken charge of the business.

Real estate agent G. R. Snapp sold Saturday for Arthur Mullikin his residence on College Hill to R. B. Palmer at a private price.

Miss Lucille Henry and Mr. Jasper Shannon, both of Carlisle, have been granted a license by the Cynthiana high school faculty for the 1927-28 term.

Real estate agent H. B. Bryson sold recently for Z. M. Mattox his farm of 60 acres, near town, known as the Tim Clancy farm, to J. Smith for approximately $1,000.

Fire originating on the roof around a chimney at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Clark on West Main street caused the fire department to respond to an alarm last Friday, but the fire was extinguished before the arrival of the fire truck. Small damage was done.

During the meeting of the Kentucky Negro Educational Association held in Louisville last week, two members of the Henryville negro school received first prizes on exhibits in school work. Amelia Stout received a gold medal in penmanship and Herbert Summers received a cash award of $2 in drawings.

James C. Stone, president of the Burley Association, Tuesday announced the sale of 9,500,000 pounds of the 1923 redried tobacco crop to Liggett & Myers. This leaves the Association but 4,500 hogsheads of the 1923 crop and less than 80,000,000 pounds of the old tobacco of 1925, 1924 and 1925 unsold.

In a one-sided contest at Jackson's park Tuesday afternoon, the Carlisle high school Musketeers defeated Bourbon County high school by a score of 11 to 3. Kerns, lanky portside hurler for the Musketeers, had the visitors at his mercy throughout the game and was given splendid support. Heavy hitting of the local team was the feature of the game.

Miss Nealya Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burgess, of Carlisle, who is teaching near Lilburn, Mo., had a narrow escape when that town was flooded by water, according to a message received by her parents. Miss Burgess and other residents of Lilburn boarded a special train and escaped the high waters, although she was unable to take her trunk with her.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Absee, near Blue Lick Springs, was completely destroyed by fire with all of its contents, by fire about noon Tuesday. Mrs. Absee was housecleaning and burning trash in the yard. Sparks from the burning trash are believed to have ignited the roof and the building was burned before anything could be saved. No insurance was carried on building or contents.

Ollie Sellers, formerly of Carlisle, suffered serious injuries at Gary, Ind., recently, according to a message received here. While returning home from work on a motorcycle, a large sedan driven by a negro cut in front of Sellers and his motorcycle plunged into the side of the car. Mr. Sellers suffered a fracture of the ankle and a deep cut on the leg, which will keep him confined to his home from four to six months, his physician stated.

Bids for the construction of the new school building at Moorefield were opened at a meeting of the Nicholas county board of education Saturday, and John M. Smitson was awarded the contract. Mr. Smitson's bid was for $8,132 plus the old building, which he valued at $800. Work will be started Monday and the structure will be ready for occupancy in the fall. The building will contain four rooms and will be of brick veneer.

THE CREATOR

There is a book, who runs may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need—
Pure eyes and loving hearts

The works of God, above, below,
Within us, and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God himself is found.

The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Father's love;
Wherever spread, encompassed, great and small
In peace and order move.

Thou who hast given me eyes to see
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out Thee
And read Thee every-where.

100 KILLED BY BANDITS

Force Of 500 Raid Train In Mexico And Kill Passengers

Between 50 and 100 helpless passengers were slaughtered by a great force of revolutionists or bandits who held up a Guadalajara-Mexico City train after blowing the train's escort of 50 soldiers. The bandits dynamited the coaches with gasoline and kerosene and set them afire, and as the terrified passengers tried frantically to climb out of the windows to escape the incineration, they were shot down. The slaughter took place near Limon, state of Jalisco.

Of such outrages, this is declared to have been the worst in Mexican history. The attack came almost without warning. Suddenly the train was halted while passing a desolate territory and the attack, some reports have it, was begun by from 500 to 1,000 armed men. They made short work of the military guards, then locked the doors of the coaches, applied the torch to the oil soaked wood and, by the light of the flames that instantly shot up, poured savage fusillades into the bodies of the passengers as they hung half out of the windows in an attempt to reach the ground.

FORD-SAPIRO TRIAL OFF

Judge Upholds Ford's Counsel In Claim For Mistrial

Aaron Sapiro's $1,000,000 libel suit against Henry Ford and the automobile manufacturer's weekly, the Dearborn Independent, which has been in progress in Detroit for several weeks, was halted last Thursday when Federal Judge Tuttle M. Raymond declared a mistrial. He upheld the claim of the Ford attorneys that they had been contaminated by newspaper publication of an interview with a juror, Mrs. Cora Peterson.

He discharged the jury and immediately called John A. Bartlett, Federal district attorney, and told him to investigate and if his findings warranted, file contempt proceedings against the Detroit Times, the reporter who interviewed Mrs. Hoffman, and any others involved in the publication of her story.

Attorneys for both sides will meet April 20 to set a date for a new hearing of the suit.

DR. GRAY OUSTED

Lexington Minister Suspended From Presbyterian Church

The Rev. J. Archer Gray, will be tried publicly before the West Lexington Presbytery in adjourned session at the Lexington Y. M. C. A. on Monday, May 2, on charges preferred against him by Prof. William S. Webb, ruling elder of the Maxwell Presbyterian church in Lexington. The charges will be that he was admitted to Knoxville Presbytery through fraudulent and forged credentials, according to a resolution introduced at the meeting of the Presbytery at Nicholasville, last week by Rev. B. S. Lander, of Winchester, stated clerk of the Presbytery.

The first public announcement of charges preferred against Dr. Gray, by Prof. Webb at an executive session on March 25 was made public. Since Dr. Gray's suspension as pastor of the Lexington church a church known as "Everybody's Church" has been organized and he is pastor.
