

PAPERS IN ED ALVEY CASE ARE MISSING

Records Removed from Kentucky Historical Society's Keeping in Frankfort, Louisville Gambler Was Pardon by Governor Beckham Causing Outcry from Pulpit and Press of Entire State

Official documents dealing with the pardon of Ed Alvey, Louisville gambler, now supporting J. C. W. Beckham, who was pardoned by Governor Beckham in 1911, are missing in Frankfort. They had disappeared between May 1 and July 21 from the custody of the Kentucky Historical Society.

Ed Alvey had been convicted of the charge of "maintaining, operating and conducting and selling, etc., a game of roulette" at 409 West Market Street, between the 11 and 12 o'clock, a. m. of Louisville.
