STATE NEWS BRIEFS

The Ewing Fair will begin next Thursday, August 18th. Daily noon and afternoon days and night are scheduled.

A new home had tobacco near home, 150 x 250 feet will be erected in the form of Duke & Dupont at Mayfield.

The unidentified body of a ten year old girl was taken from the Ohio river by two fishermen at Louisville last week.

The week's weather shows a period of thunder showers Friday and temperature of the entire week above normal.

William Carpenter, 29 years old, was lodged in jail at Mt. Sterling last week after his arrest on a charge of killing Harry White, 27, at Morehead.

Kentucky will probably rank third in the production of coal this year, being exceeded only by West Virginia and Pennsylvania. The state was fourth last year.

Newport, Mich., 78, will become retired business man, general manager of the Paris Water Company, lived at his home in Paris last week following a long illness.

Charlie McLean, 21 years old, was shot and wounded in the neck by J. P. Dugg, sheriff of Metcalfe county, who McLean, who was under arrest, broke loose from the station.

The funeral services for Mrs. General Leonard Wood, who died Sunday morning in Boston were held in Washington Tuesday. Burial was in the Arlington national cemetery.

William H. Mackay, of Mason county, was elected director of the Kentucky Tobacco Growers Association to succeed James N. Baber at the meeting of the board held at Lexington last week.

Fred McArthur, employee of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Mayfield, may lose the sight of his left eye as the result of being struck by a transverse ribbon coil thrown by a young negro boy.

The Blue Grass Fair announces its opening day for August 22. This annual event at Lexington promises to be the biggest fair ever held in the Blue Grass, according to Secretary Barnaby.

During the month of July there were 44 arrests and convictions for violations of the game and fish laws, according to the report of George C. Wagner, executive agent of the game and fish commission.

Mrs. Julian Levin, wife of Dr. Julian Levin, was cut and injured and T. J. Lewis was cut and injured, when Dr. Levin was struck by a horse and wagon on the Versailles road near Lexington Saturday night.

Because of the prevalence of influenza, which has caused the death of the board of health of Scott county has issued a proclamation encouraging children from attending shows, churches and other public gatherings.

Displeasure being received at the hands of her husband and declaring that she would have revenge for the rough treatment, Mrs. Clarence Baker, of Madison county, last week called the sheriff and led him to a still operated by her husband.

Frank Henry, 32 years old, formerly of Bowling Green, hanged his wife, Mrs. Edna Henry, 72, to death with a case knife and then slashed his own body repeatedly, inflicting wounds that caused his death in his home in Indianapolis last week.

A. J. Chandler, 64 years old, of Cincinnati, was beaten and hurled from the Jefferson street viaduct in the throat Saturday night by Walter Zier, an employee of the Pacific Medical Institute, in a fight in front of the Franklin county courthouse, following a police argument.

Gaule Alexander, Central Kentucky golf champion, was killed by Chester D. Morris, traveling salesman who was mistakenly killed. Mr. Alexander suffered injuries that were fatal Saturday night. Mrs. Jesse Francis suffered broken ribs and skull, when the car, driven by Mr. Morris, crashed into a high tension pole on the Winchester job Saturday night, at the party was returning to Lexington from Boone Hill.
