Arctic Aerials

The Baltoss of northern Canada, instead of huddling at night in their igloos, congregate at the government [illegible]

From NOTHING Per Day to DOLLARS Per Day.

If 50 cents worth of grain alone, fed to 100 hens, will produce two eggs per day and 75 cents worth of grain and Tuxedo Egg Mash fed together will produce 18 eggs per day, which would be the cheaper, to add the 25 cents to the daily ration and gather 18 eggs per day or continue the grain alone and receive 10 eggs per day?

If the addition of the Tuxedo would prompt 18 hens to lay, why should it not everything? And if you receive 18 hens that it's a good 48 eggs per day, would it not be more profitable to spend the extra 25 cents per day and get in return $1.97 worth of eggs, than to spend the 50 cents for grain alone and receive no eggs per day?

If the balancing of your food ration, at a cost of a few cents per day, will cause 18 hens to lay then why not 18, 68 or even 98 out of the 100 get busy and set you a profit, at the present price of eggs, of several dollars per day?

You solve this problem and TUXEDO will prove the figures.

KENNETH DALZELL DIES IN ACCIDENT

11-Year Old Son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Dalzell Victim Of Shotgun

TWO OTHERS KILLED

As the result of three accidents in which shotguns played the role of death weapons, three persons lost their lives in Central Kentucky last Thursday and Friday. The dead are: Kenneth Howe Dalzell, 11 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Dalzell, of near Jacksonville, Bourbon county; Ernest Gardner, 42, of near Curry, Harrison county; John William Wilhoite, 26, of Scott county.

Kenneth Howe Dalzell died at the Mannie hospital in Paris Friday night at 8 o'clock, six hours after he had been accidentally shot by A. J. Allen, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Allen. The accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen, near Jacksonville, Bourbon county, where the victim and his parents were visiting.

The Dalzell family was ready to start home, and Kenneth was carefully undressed in the house trying to get a dog to take home with him. The Allen boy pulled up the gun and while near Dalzell pulled the trigger. The discharge struck the child in the right hip and scattered throughout his body, the fatal shot entering the liver. He died in the hospital, but no hope was held for his recovery.

Besides his parents, Kenneth is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Henry Allen and Miss Virginia Howe. Funeral services were held at the home Sunday and burial followed in the Carlisle cemetery.

Ernest Gardner was killed by his eight year old nephew, Dempsey Earle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Earle, in Harrison county. The boy picked up the gun, believed to be unloaded, from against a fence and leveled it at his uncle 40 feet away. The charge struck him in the head, killing him instantly.

John Wilhoite died Thursday night in a hospital in Georgetown of wounds received when a gun in the hands of his father was accidentally discharged while they were hunting.

HOBOES TAKE TRAIN

Upon receipts of complaints, by the train crew, Sheriff J. L. Bradford and several deputies boarded a freight car at the Falmouth station and found about 20 hoboes drunk and carousing in the caboose. The men made a break to escape when the officers approached, but all but six of them succeeded. The unlucky six were placed in the Pendleton county jail on charges of unlawfully riding trains.

Court Denies Nelson Appeal

To Restrain Board From Issuing Certificate to Breathitt As Lieutenant Governor

Judge Gus Thomas of the Court of Appeals Friday afternoon overruled a motion filed by Attorney Injunction sought by E. E. Nelson, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor to restrain State Board of Elections from issuing a certificate of election to James Breathitt, Jr., until certain votes in Jefferson county had been recounted.

Breathitt was elected Lieutenant Governor by 153 votes on the face of official returns.

Four other judges of the Court of Appeals sat with Judge Thomas in his opinion overruling the motion, for the injunction. Judge Thomas overruled all motions prayed for by Nelson.

Judge Thomas in his opinion said that according to Section 1432 of the Ky. Statutes, the Jefferson county canvassing board has the right to cast aside any ballots deemed illegal and they acted within their authority when casting aside the votes which Nelson sought to have counted.

In his opinion Judge Thomas said that the contest and recount proceedings of officers agreed to cast out the ballots and their action in the matter was final.

NEW FORD TOMORROW

New Model on Exhibition December 2 Officials Announce

Henry Ford's new car, which officials of the Ford Motor Company say will be responsible for the expenditure of nearly eight hundred million dollars before the end of labor during 1928, will be given its first public showing in Nicholasville, Canada and England Friday, December 2, Ford announced last week.

It was intimated that it will be more than a month before any models will go on sale.

WHY DR. BOARD?

(Standford Interior-Journal)

We note that Governor Fields has appointed Milton Board, of Lexington, to make the expenditure of nearly eight hundred million dollars before the end of labor during 1928, "will be given its first public showing in Nicholasville, Canada and England Friday, December 2, Ford announced last week."

It was intimated that it will be more than a month before any models will go on sale.

WHY DR. BOARD?

(Standford Interior-Journal)

We note that Governor Fields has appointed Milton Board, of Lexington, to make the expenditure of nearly eight hundred million dollars before the end of his term. Dr. Board is a good man, but why should he be selected for this job? Is it because he is a doctor? Governor Fields is going in debt for a million dollars to build a new capitol, and Dr. Board is to be the man to spend the money. Why not let the contract to the lowest bidder? Why not let the contract to the lowest bidder? Why not let the contract to the lowest bidder?
