WINTER WOODLAND

In this place I heard the thrush sing
Their jeweled notes on things
Where leafless and the falling
Was rapturous...

ADVICE

About this time in every other year, there comes the urge in government to the legislature. It seems to be a barren position, as it neither breeds, nor builds, nor sows...

AN IMMUTABLE LAW

The immutable law of the land is that the more you know, the more you are ignorant. This is a law that is as true as the sun...

CONGRATULATIONS

The Muskies take their rightful place in the Central Kentucky Conference and the Mercury joins its loyal friends of the local school in profuse congratulations.

THIS, THAT AND TOTHER

A Page From The Diary Of A Country Doctor
Lay late, even for the Sabbath and fair, would linger, having to wait from bank to bank...

30 Years Ago

Thursday, December 9, 1897
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Foster George of Salsburg, Decatur county, a daughter.

42 YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 10, 1895
George Johnson opens a new store in room adjoining passenger depot, known as Johnson's store.
