THE CARLISLE MERCURY

Established 1867

Entered at the Carlisle Postoffice as second class matter

Warren Fisher, Editor
Grimes Caywood, News Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One Year (in advance)	$2.00
Six Months (in advance)	1.00
Three Months (in advance)	.65

Member Kentucky Press Association
Member Nat'l Editorial Association

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1927

Believing as I do that man in the distant future will be a far more perfect creature than he now is, it is an intolerable thought that he and all other sentient beings are doomed to complete annihilation after such long-continued slow progress. To those who fully admit the immortality of the human soul, the destruction of our world will not appear so dreadful.—Darwin.

CONFOUNDING THE PESSIMISTS

The pendulum swings and the much maligned younger generation is having its day in court. They our boys and girls, shorks and flappers, young ladies and young gentlemen, are not so bad as the pessimists paint them. The Mercury has long contended. In point of fact, they may not be so bad as some of their detractors, most of whom are well fallen into knowledge. Now the youngsters of to-day are from a new subject, but they are not. Therefore interesting to lad and lassie alike. In the days of primeval man a purity which marked an retrogression. Civilization started the era of the horse and buggy, the bustle, the puff sleeve and the linen duster. Consequently they did not think so much about such matters as do their critics who missed frankness in their day.

The Carlisle Herald calls for "refuting the long faces," and that is he must stop "living out of as many do so. No admission fee will be charged.

Then quotes two educators of hers, who describe the modern boy as "too much of a sissy," and "a mollycoddle." Both of these terms describe, as truthful and as correct become to the hectic manly as the boys of their own former and notice in the former of youth, and a bishop who thinks that the present-day schools are responsible for the present generation. Mr. Hall, that he would be overturned into audrey. Many tobacco crops are ruined by a people live during the last part against the slow returns of the two decades. To which the Mercury can add all the evils of