LETTERS FROM MERCURY'S COUNTY CORRESPONDENTS

MIRANDA

The P. T. A. of Miranda school held its February meeting at the school building Friday, the 18th. Despite the very inclement weather a good number of the members were in attendance. Mrs. Lillie Dunican led a very interesting program. Recitations on Washington and Lincoln were given by the pupils and readings by the adult members. One important feature of the meeting was officers' election. While all deeply regretted Mrs. Bruce Hughes' resignation, for she had labored faithfully for the good of the association, we are assured of Mrs. Walter Hazelrigg's best endeavors for a bigger and better year than we have ever had.

At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed in honor of our members who are moving to other counties. Refreshments were served consisting of Angel Food cake and lemonade.

LYRIC THEATRE

Mr. and Mrs. James Shannon have purchased the residence of Gilbert Reid in Arnold Heights at a private price.

The banks were closed Tuesday and there was no R. F. D. in celebration of Washington's birthday. No special observance of the occasion was held.

Judson Harmon, 80 years old, former governor of Ohio, and former attorney general of the United States, died in a hospital at Cincinnati Tuesday.

Master Commissioner U. M. Swinford will conduct a sale of several pieces of farm and city property at the court house door in Carlisle Friday afternoon.

W. H. Baker last week sold privately to Ed George his residence and 22 acres of land on the Pleasant Springs pike, about four miles from Carlisle, at a private price.

John Colville sold last week to Verna Stone his residence on North street, now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hazelrigg, at a price reported to be about $1,500.

The February term of the Nicholas circuit court reconvened Tuesday after a recess of ten days, and cases on the civil docket have been assigned for trial until Friday afternoon. The grand jury is in session.

The Carlisle high school Musketeers lost both games in their trip to Grayson and Haldeman last Friday and Saturday nights. The team was accompanied by Mr. E. E. Pfanstiel and Mr. Joe T. Embry.

County Clerk John A. Westfall has prepared a list of Nicholas county dog owners who secured license before February 15 and this list will be published in The Mercury next week or the week following, as required by law.

A record never exceeded in a Carlisle tobacco printing room was made one day the past week in the printing room of the Burley Associate plant when the crew of "Polly" Brothers, foreman of the printery, turned out 19 hogsheads of tobacco in one day.

The long-heralded cold wave was ushered in Friday with a snowfall which continued throughout Saturday and Sunday, blanketing this section with a foot of snow, the heaviest of the winter. In the outmost of the roads were impassable because of the snowdrifts, but the warm weather of Monday soon melted them.

Because of the inclement weather last Friday, the land terracing demonstration, scheduled to be held on the farm of Walter Atkinson, near town, was postponed until a later date. C. E. Wells, agricultural engineer from the college of agriculture at Lexington, will return to conduct the demonstration at a later date.

Gaining entrance by smashing a glass in a door in the rear of the store, a thief or thieves entered the store of J. A. Power on East Main street some time Sunday night. A few cheap trinkets were missed by Mr. Power, leading to the belief that the intruders were children. Several valuable watches and other jewelry in the store were undisturbed.

Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, who is in charge of the missionary work of the M. E. Church, South, addressed a large audience at the Carlisle Methodist church Sunday night, talking on "Religious Conditions in Europe." Bishop Darlington has recently returned from several months trip abroad, where he visited various countries. At the close of the service more than $400 for missionary work was subscribed.

A frame and brick building at Sharpsburg in which a picture show was conducted by Goodwin Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Knight, was destroyed by fire about 6:30 p. m. Saturday, a few minutes before time for the evening performance to begin. The blaze was caused by an overheated stove. The structure was thirty feet wide and 100 feet long, and was completely destroyed with all of its contents. Heroic efforts of the fire department prevented buildings on either side both of frame construction, from burning.
