LETTERS FROM MERCURY'S COUNTY CORRESPONDENTS

SALTWELL

Death visited our community again and took away George M. Gaunce, 59 years three months five days old. Mr. Gaunce was one of our best citizens. He was a deep spiritual man; he lived a Christian life. He was true to his conviction, to his family, his friends, and the church. During his long period of sickness, and affliction he never murmured. In the passing away of this man the community has lost a great citizen and he will be sadly missed. His faithfulness to the church was a mark of his Christian experience. After suffering since Nov. 11th, God called him home on the morning of January 21, at 10 o'clock. He is survived by his faithful wife, six children L. S. of Paris; G. G., and Clay M. of Centennial; Mrs. J. J. Barker, Mrs. J. S. Smith, and Myrtle Gaunce, all of the county four brothers, Stanwell, W. S. Mott, and Hugh Gaunce; two sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Bunker and Mrs. U. G. Mattox, who, together with a host of friends, mourn his loss. The funeral took place at Saltwell church Sunday morning at 10:30, conducted by Rev. M. S. Clark, assisted by Rev. S. W. Hood after which he was laid to rest in Carlisle cemetery.

LIMESTONE BRINGS INCREASED YIELDS

The annual report of County Agent F. B. Wilson of Laurel County shows that 847 farmers in eighty-two districts in Laurel and Jackson districts in Laurel County used limestone last year. They spread a total of 1,119 loads on 1,400 acres.

Mr. Wilson and co-operating agencies conducted a campaign to encourage the use of limestone. A total of $425 was distributed in prizes to secure the most limestone.

A feature of the work which did much to make the campaign a success was the fact that dealers agreed to keep limestone available at all times, so that farmers could always buy it in any amount desired. It also was sold on credit. Approximately two-thirds of the total amount used in the county was purchased in sacks.

Practically every one of the 847 farmers using limestone are satisfied with results, according to Mr. Wilson. Nineteen farmers using acid phosphate and four limestone in amounts varying from 500 to 2,000 pounds per acre secured a sweet clover stand estimated at 80 per cent, while no unlimed land the stand was less than 2 per cent.

Thirteen farmers using limestone reported an average increase in corn yield of eighteen bushels per acre. In one instance a boy who applied 1,000 pounds of limestone and 400 pounds of phosphate harvested 105 bushels of corn from an acre, while thirty bushels were obtained from an untreated acre of similar land left as a check.

It was also observed that 500 to 1,000 pounds of finely ground limestone per acre is better results than a ton or more of coarsely ground stone.—Courier Journal.

THOUGHTS

Do you know that your thoughts rule your life?

Be they pure or impure in the strife? As you think, so you are.

And you make or you mar

Your success in the world

By your thoughts.

Are your thoughts just and true every hour?

Then your life will attest with great power.

If it's love fills your heart,

Then all hate must depart;

Then you're sure success.

By your thoughts.

Are you kind in your thoughts toward all?

Then but kindness to you must befall.

As you sow, so you reap,

In a measure so deep,

Either pleasure or pain,

By your thoughts.

—Emily Tupper-Bendit.

BLIND CARPENTER

Henry Anderson, negro, of Midway, who became totally blind 24 years ago when struck in a rock blast, learned the carpenter's trade after losing his sight and has built his own house and several others in Midway. He has recently completed a miniature bedroom suite, which in workmanship surpasses that of many who can see.

SHELL SHOCK

Blinks: The shell-shock is something new.

Jinks: Oh, I don't know. I had it when I was a young fellow.

Blinks: Huh! You never were in a war.

Jinks: No, but I attended a county fair and bet all the money I had that the little pea was under the middle shell.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

FACTS AND FIGURES PROFITS AND LOSS

One of our customers, (his name on request) in the office January, 10th, told us this.

"I have 100 Leghorn pullets, one half of which were hatched May 5, 1926 and the balance June 1, 1926. I bought a bag of Tuxedo Egg Mash late in November and the pullets commenced laying about December 1. Including the first bag and up to date I have fed $24.00 worth of Tuxedo Egg Mash and $6.00 worth of corn, a total of $30.00 for feed, and have sold $88.80 worth of eggs. I attribute the egg production solely to the mash as I have never before been able to get any winter eggs, but this is the first time I have used Tuxedo Egg Mash.

ANOTHER PARTY

His name on request, was in the office a few days later and said he had 250 hatred rock hens, but was not getting an egg, and hadn't this winter. From December 1 to January 10 he had fed $78.00 worth of corn, which was a total loss. Had he fed Tuxedo Egg Mash and corn in proportion to the mash above his feed bill would have been $7.500 and his egg sales amounted to $217., At a profit of $141 instead of a loss of $78.00.

We can name you numbers of just such instances as above, where

TUXEDO EGG MASH

is making big profits for its users, while grain alone is a dead loss of time and money. Get a bag of Tuxedo today and try to make back what you have lost. Two pounds of Starting Mash free with each bag of Tuxedo Egg Mash

BACK TO OLD KENTUCKY

I want to git back,
An' I'm yearnin' to-day
For the sweet scenes of old
An' the folks far away.
I want to git back
Whar the bluegrass grows,
Whar the breeze whispers music
An' love as it blows;
Whar skies are the softest
An' sunlight steals
O'er the golden terbacker
An' broad bony fields,
Back in old Kentucky.

I want to git back
Whar the women all are
The sweetest an' fairest
Fer earth, by far!
I want to git back
Jes' to hear the ring
O' their laffer sp'in';
I would give anything
Fer the moonlight nights
When we used to go
To parties an' dances,
An' each an' ev'ry beau
Back in old Kentucky.

I want to git back
Whar the swift trained feet
Uv the race-horse slender—
It's music sweet.
I want to git back
To the alfalfee hills,
Whar the corn-juice runs
From the old distills.
I want to git back
Yes, the good Lord knows,
I want to git back
Whar the bluegrass grows,
Back in old Kentucky.
