There is a pleasure in the pastoral woods. There is a rapture on the leafy shore.

I have seen the least bit Nature from these our highways, in all that I read.

From the hills with the universe, and feel the sun's rays, upon my face, and what I can not see, I can not feel at all.

—Lord Byron

THIS, THAT AND OTHER.

A Page From The Diary Of A Country Elder

My wife and I had to get up at five o'clock to go to the school building to arise, but soon we were able to find a seat.

Busy Days Along This Rural Route

On a road, were I not afraid to do so, to wear the good man against the weight of pen and ink, for the sport of attempting official writing.
