Forward, Kentucky! Unselfish Service To State Is Goal Of Gov. Beckham. A vote for Beckham at the Democratic Primary, August 6, 1927, and again in the November election, is a vote for progress in Kentucky—clean government, honest and efficient business methods and real service to all the people of the Commonwealth.

Mr. Beckham Will Speak At: Cynthiana, Owsingsville, Flemingsburg. Speaking at 1:30 P. M. at Cynthiana and Flemingsburg and at night at Owsingsville.

MONTGOMERY DECLARES FOR BECKHAM; DID NOT TELL GOV. FIELDS HE WAS IN FAVOR OF CUTTING ROAD REVENUES. Announcing his support of former Gov. J. C. W. Beckham for the gubernatorial nomination and asserting that he was in complete accord with Gov. Beckham's plan for the rapid completion of Kentucky's highway system, William C. Montgomery, chairman of the Field's Highway Commission for the last three and one-half years, issued an amplified statement on July 3 in which he denies he ever told Gov. Fields that he favored any reduction of the highway revenues at the present time.

Completion of Mayo Trail and Other Vital Road Work Would be Delayed by Crowe Plan, Montgomery's View; Counties, With or Without Agreements, Likewise Hit. W. C. Montgomery Tells How Crowe Plan Would Cripple Highway Construction.

In a recent interview, W. C. Montgomery, former chairman of the State Highway Commission, made it his business to state that he was in complete accord with Gov. Beckham's plan for the rapid completion of Kentucky's highway system.

It is the opinion of the writer that the plan proposed would delay the completion of the Mayo Trail in Kentucky for four years, and that the plan proposed would delay the completion of the Mayo Trail in Kentucky for four years.
