Armour's Burley Tobacco Grower

Buy Your Tobacco Fertilizer With Your Eyes Open

Don't run the risk of ruining your next crop of burley by trying to save a few cents on a bag of "just-so-good" fertilizer.

You may save a little in the beginning, but you may lose many dollars on a poor yield of inferior leaf in the end.

Know the kind of fertilizer that will give you the most profitable crop and get it. And remember that the source of the plant food is as important as the formula itself.

KEEPING BOYS ON THE FARM

By G. F. Jordan Field Editor, Agricultural Extension Department International Harvester Company.

For years the government has been trying to encourage boys to stay on the farm. It has done this by offering them money, but nothing has come of it. The following formula was proposed by Clyde Johnson, a farm boy in Kentucky, who was one of the boys who were asked to write for the National Farm School.
