Musketeers Win Four of Six Tilts

Carlisle High School Team Has Good Season, Although Prevented From Playing Several Games

The Musketeers met defeat in the last home game of the 1927 baseball season here last Friday afternoon, when Paris won a pitchers battle by the score of 2 to 0.

This game was probably saved for Paris in the last half of the ninth inning when Davis the right fielder for Paris robbed Cook of a hit ticketed for a triple, by one of the most sensational catches ever made on this field. Stone was on base at the time. The pitching of Lancaster of Paris deserves mention due to the fact that only two Carlisle men got safe hits off his delivery, namely Curry and Galbraith. Stone of the locals let Paris down with three hits but they were bunched, and he also was wild at times. Lancaster was the batting star of the game by making two safe hits one of them a double. Paris—2 runs, 3 hits, 2 errors. C. H. S.—0 runs, 6 hits, 2 errors.

Seasons batting average:

	AB	R	H	Pct.
Haselrigg	1	1	1	1.000
Shaw	28	10	10	.357
Cook	24	7	7	.292
Cook	29	8	8	.276
Gaunce	12	3	3	.250
Earlywine	26	8	6	.230
Bowe	39	4	7	.223
Curry	19	5	4	.211
Clark	19	7	4	.211
Galbraith	11	0	2	.181
Stone	25	4	4	.160
Durham	16	3	2	.125
Snapp	23	4	2	.087
Scott	1	0	0	.000
Linville	1	0	0	.000
Season Ave.	244	56	58	.237
Pitchers Record:
		W.	L.	Pct.
Kerns		2	0	1.000
Earlywine		1	0	1.000
Stone		1	2	.333
		4	2	.667

What was thought to be a mediocre team at the beginning of the season turned out to be about as good a team as Carlisle has had in recent years. They had fair pitching, good fielding, and fine batting, up to the last game, when they failed to connect. "Not a bad record, What." True we lose four at good men as ever swung a bat in Cook, Shaw, Bowe and Stone but it is possible to replace them and a good team is in line for next year.

Last Friday morning at the last chapel exercise Coach Embry gave out letters to the following in basketball (having played 16 quarters). Girls—Misses Shawhan, Parker, Frey, Ross, Hattie McClanahan, Gordon and Stone. Boys—Cook, Haselrigg, Nixon, Floyd Kerns, Gaunce, Shaw, Clark, Barnett and Berk.

In Baseball: Bowe, Gaunce, Curry, Stone, Shaw, Barnett, Cook, Cook, Shaw, Clark, Kerns, Stone and Parker.

THE LOITERER

He argued that to idle was a duty
In a world that God had made as good—
Else why was every by-way bright with beauty
And why the thrushes chanting in the wood?

He saw no reason why a man should sweat
And thus miss life somewhere along the way;

He saw no need for all the haste and worry—
For dusk brings soon enough the end of day.

At that, he said he had no weighty reason
Why others, wiser, should not live as he;
He must wait to sample every season,
And ponder riddles of the earth and sky.

He heard the thunder of the world receding
But liked the pause it left, for he, alas,
Knew never where the path he took was leading—
God made his feet to loiter by the grass!
