PUBLIC SALE

Fine Blue Grass Farm

On the premises, on the Simmons Mill pike, in Bourbon county, Kentucky on

at 10:30 o'clock a. m. This farm is known as the Henry Bowen farm, and is now owned by Webb Bratton, of Winchester. It is the first time it has been offered on the market in 67 years. It is ideally located, being right in the heart of the bluegrass country, 9 miles from Paris; 12 miles from Winchester; 25 miles from Mt. Sterling. Between three co-operative markets and railroad cities. Close to schools and colleges.

The farm contains 300 acres, 225 acres in the old sod. Balance in cultivation and wheat. All the old land is noted for its growth of white clover now. The land lays well, just rolling enough to drain properly. The farm is watered by Stoner Creek, ponds, pools, never-failing springs and is well watered and fenced farms in the state.

Improvements consist of 10-room brick and frame house, with bath, barn, garage and implement house and tobacco barn, all in excellent repair. There is a bearing orchard and other fruits. This farm is one of the best in the state and should be described—it must be seen to be appreciated.

This will be 10 per cent, day of sale; 22 1-2 of the balance payable on March 1, 1928; 33 1-3 per cent payable March 1, 1929, and 33 1-3 payable March 1, 1930. Deferred payments bear 6 per cent interest and secured by lien on land until paid, or purchaser may pay all cash or as much or more cash then one third he desires.

The farm is ideal for stock and cultivating purposes and is rich in fertility.

The farm will be offered in 2 tracts, one of 110 acres and the main improvements; then 170 acres with tenant house and tobacco barn on the other as a whole. We be glad to show the property at any time. For further information, call Webb Bratton at Winchester, Ky., or the undersigned.

TRIPLETS 83

Shelby county enjoys the distinction of being the place of birth of the oldest living triplets in the United States.

Robert S. Fry, of Fall River, Kansas; Henry My, of Illipolis, Illinois, and Jacob Woodson Fry, of Ilsivia, Illinois, observed their eighty-third birthday anniversary on October 11th. Plans made for a reunion of the three brothers on their anniversary were not carried out. They have not held a reunion in more than 10 years.

Born in Claysvillgen, Shelby county, Kentucky, they accompanied their parents to Lagorville, Illinois, when nine years old. Later they moved to Nebraska, where they spent twenty years.—Shelby News.

LOCAL BOYS WIN $173 IN PREMIUMS

On Three Car Loads of Baby Beeves at Annual Fat Cattle Show

RECEIVE GOOD PRICES

Nicholas county junior agricultural club members received premiums aggregating $173 on their baby beeven shown at the annual Fat Cattle Show held at the Bourbon Stock Yards in Louisville last week. The fifty-four head of baby beeves were sold on Thursday 2nd Friday, bringing from $14 to $17 per hundred pounds.

In the premium list Nicholas county was awarded ninth place in the best car load, which won a premium of $80 with an additional $20 from the Hereford Breeders Association; on a second car Nicholas was awarded twentieth premium of $25; James Judge was awarded sixteenth premium of $12 for best single steer or heifer from a carload. James Judge also received seventh premium of $20 for best single steer or heifer from a carload. James Judge also received seventh premium of $20 for best single steer or heifer from a carload. James Judge also received seventh premium of $20 for best single steer or heifer from a carload was won by Nicholas.

Fifty-four head of baby beeves were shipped from Nicholas county two cars belonging to club members and one to M. D. Judge & Son. The baby beeves averaged more than 1,000 pounds each and brought more than double the amount paid for them last spring.

The first car load of sixteen calves sold for $17 a hundred pounds. In the second carload 12 calves brought $16.10; eleven brought $14.35 and one brought $14; in the third carload two brought $15; ten brought $13.50 and one brought $18.50.

Julian Waters, of Garrard county, won the grand championship prize on his calf, per premium a mounting to approximately $1,000. The calf, which weighed 720 pounds, was sold at auction for $1.20 per pound, the highest price ever paid.

Nicholas county boys were well pleased with the prices and most of them expressed a determination to breed even better calves to the show next fall.

INFORMATION SOUGHT

Several Copies of Mercury Found Wrapping Property of Californian

The Mercury last week received from F. A. Hackett, of El Centro, California, a letter announcing the death of Edward Golden, who died on Nov. 1, from an acute attack of appendicitis.

Efforts to locate relatives of Mr. Golden have proven futile, Mr. Hackett said. He was born in Madison county, and was 54 years old. He was a Mason and a veteran of the Spanish-American war. Mr. Golden is thought to have a brother living in Madison county.

According to Mr. Hackett several copies of The Mercury were found among the personal effects of Mr. Golden, which lead to the supposition that he was a subscriber, and possibly had relatives here. Mr. Golden's name does not now appear on our mailing list, but we have several subscribers in California who may have given him the papers.

Any information concerning relatives is sought by Mr. Hackett, who said he had known Mr. Golden for more than 20 years and was associated with him in business.

A NOBLE BEQUEST

Another fine example of the growing tendency toward benevolence on the part of wealthy men is seen in the will of the late J. Davies Warfield, president of the Seaboard Air Line railway and a Baltimore banker, who left large enterprises.

Mr. Warfield leaves his residuary estate, estimated to be between five and ten million dollars, for the founding of a home for dependent aged women. It will be located at his Manor Farm, near Timonium, Maryland, and will be called "Anna Emory Warfield Home," in memory of his mother.

FOUR ELECTROCUTED

Within the space of half an hour, four men were put to death in the electric chair in the state prison at Trenton, N. J., early last Friday morning, for the murder of a paymaster in Newark, N. J., in July, 1926. Each died protesting his innocence.

TAX COLLECTIONS SLOW

Less Than Half of State and County Taxes Paid

Less than half of the 1927 state and county taxes have been collected so far, according to Sheriff L. B. Barton. With only five weeks left in which to collect taxes, the Sheriff's office will be a busy place from now until the first of the year.

Up until the first of September collections were heavy, many taxpayers saving the penalty, but since that time collections have been slow.

City taxpayers have but five more days to pay their taxes before the penalty is added on December 1.

Farmer Shoots Himself In Foot

Charles Massie Painfully Wounded When Gun, Resting on Foot, Accidentally Discharges

Charles Massie, of the Stony Creek section, suffered a badly lacerated foot, in the accidental discharge of an automatic shotgun in his farm home Sunday afternoon. Massie was walking through his farm with the loaded gun and stopped to talk to some neighbors resting the muzzle of the gun on his foot in some manner the gun went off ,the charge tearing through his foot at the rear of the heel.

Mr. Massie was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington that night, and is reported as resting comfortably. Unless complications develop amputation will probably not be necessary, but it is possible that some of the toes or part of the foot may be removed. This is the first hunting accident of the season reported in this county.

Nicholas Turkeys Bring $15,000

Local Buyers Purchase Approximately 13,000 Pounds For Around 37 Cents Per Pound

Nicholas county turkey raisers received approximately $15,000 for turkeys sold for the Thanksgiving market, according to local buyers. During the buying season for Thanksgiving market, which closed Saturday night, the Blue Grass Produce Company purchased approximately 25,000 pounds of turkeys and H. N. Rankin purchased 8,000 pounds. Other smaller buyers probably purchased 5,000 pounds.

Local buyers paid 37 cents per pound for most of the turkeys, but for fancy birds paid more.

The fowls this year were as good as ever, according to the buyers, the entire purchase averaging around 13 pounds per head. The fowls are well filled out and in fine condition.

Probably half of the turkeys of the county are being kept for the Christmas market, it is believed, and the market price then price will be higher and others having birds not ready for the market, the season for the Christmas market will open about December 10.

Mason Man Shoots Wife, Her Father

Dawey Sweet Wounds Mate and Her Father in Row Over Divorce Suit In Mason Tuesday

Mrs. Edna Sweet, 23 years old, and her father, Alonzo Scisler, 62, are in Haywood hospital suffering serious wounds, while Dawey Sweet, 25, the injured womanre husband is in the Mason county jail charged with murderous intent, enterprises. which followed Mr. Sweet's trip to Dorseyville Tuesday to file a suit for divorce.

The woman and her father came from their home at Springdale, three miles away, to Maysville in a car driven by a negro chauffeur. Sweet and hald started home. Sweet, as soon as he learned of the trip, armed himself with a shotgun and set out after his wife and father-in-law. He caught up with them as they were walking down the railroad tracks near Springdale.

When about ten yards away Sweet opened fire. The first two charges struck his wife in the face and breast. Reloading he shot Scisler in the hand and arm.

BREATHITT ELECTED BY MAJORITY OF 159

Tabulation of Official Vote in Jefferson County Monday Decides Race

BECKHAM ONLY LOSER

James Breathitt, Jr., Democrat, of Hopkinsville, was elected Lieutenant Governor by a majority of 159 votes, the official count for the record in an election for such an important office in Kentucky. The victory of the Hopkinsville candidate over E. E. Nelson, of Williamsburg, was revealed Monday when the official vote in Louisville and Jefferson county was tabulated.

The complete tabulation of the vote gave Sampson a majority of 32,137 over Beckham.

Flem D. Sampson, Republican, was known to have beaten J. C. W. Beckham, his Democratic opponent for Governor, by a substantial majority of 32,137, when the last precincts closed. That the other candidates on the Democratic ticket had set a precedent by defeating their Republican rivals became known several days ago, leaving the contest for Lieutenant Governor the only office in doubt.

The situation of a Republican Governor with an entire staff of Democratic executive officers has no parallel in the history of the state. However, when A. O. Stanley was elected governor a Republican was elected Secretary of State.

The majorities in the other Democratic nominees ranged from 3,000 to 10,000.

FAMOUS MUMMY SOUGHT

A search extending to the far reaches of several continents was instituted from Louisville for "Pawn Hoof," famous lost mummy of Mammoth Cave, by the Mammoth Cave National Park Association.

Letters were sent to museums of wide reputation in an effort to make possible the returning of the relic to Kentucky's proposed nation al park.

Tradition has it that the mummy of a red-headed woman was discovered more than century ago. It was taken from its resting place in the Mammoth Cave and exhibited to various parts of the world, soon becoming famous.

Lay Foundation Of Monument

Zeke Bolen Constructs Fine Obelisk On Elks Lick Battlefield—

Shaft 40 Feet High

J. L. Barnett, local contractor, Monday morning started work on the construction of the concrete foundation for the monument to be erected on the Blue Lick Battlefield in honor of the pioneer and pioneer Kentuckians who lost their lives in a battle of the Indians on that spot. Work will be delayed awaiter the foundation will be finished this week as it will be necessary to harden until next spring, when the monument will be awarded.

The monument commission, composed of Samuel F. Wilson, of Lexington, Irene S. Rees, of Carlisle and W. J. Curtis, of Robertson county, awarded a contract for the monument to a Lexington concern several weeks ago and work has already started on the shaft. The monument, which will cost $10,000, will be an obelisk, 40 feet high, 12 feet square at the base.

It will be placed where it may be readily seen from all sections, and under the terms of the contract will be completed by May 1, 1927.

EWING BOY SHOT

A charge of shot from a double barrelled shotgun accidentally discharged badly tore the left arm of Cecil Barnett, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Barnett, of Ewing, Saturday morning.

The boy was rushed to St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington where he underwent an operation and will probably recover. The accident occurred when young Barnett and a friend, William Allen, also of Ewing, were rabbit hunting. Barnett had set his gun on a rock pile when he attempted to scare up a rabbit. He suddenly grabbed the gun by the muzzle, the trigger caught on a rock and the discharge followed.

Injuries Fatal To Mrs. Knox

Former Resident of Carlisle Dies In Paris Hospital From Injuries When Hit By Car

Mrs. Julia Crain Knox, 54 years old, wife of Dr. E. Fyench Knox, former resident of Carlisle and well known here, died at the Mamie hospital in Paris last Friday night from injuries suffered on November 4 when she was struck and knocked down by an interurban car near Paris. Mrs. Knox was struck by the interurban as she stepped in the tracks from behind an automobile. The car was in charge of Motorman Ferrell Estes, son, of Lexington, formerly of this county, who applied the brakes and stopped the car a few feet from the accident.

Mrs. Knox's injuries were not thought serious at the time but a few day before her death she developed pneumonia. She was born in Fleming county and besides her husband is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. W. Lawson, and one brother, Sam H. Crain, both of Flemingsburg.

Funeral and burial took place Sunday in Flemingsburg.

Court Upholds Anti-Mask Law

Pineville City Ordinance Against Hooded Marchers Is Called Valid

Cities of Kentucky have the right to make laws prohibiting parades by masked persons, the Court of Appeals held Tuesday in reversing a decision from the Bell Circuit Court.

Sallie Marshall and twenty-five other persons were arrested and fined $5 for appearing upon the streets of Pineville in a masked parade. The city has an ordinance prohibiting parades by masked marchers.

The offenders appealed the case to the Bell Circuit Court, which held the law invalid. The city of Pineville appealed to the Court of Appeals to test validity of the ordinance.

Judge McCandless in writing the opinion said: "Clearly a disguise is a shield and protection to the wearer against the effects of a regulatory measure, innocently conducted masked parties and parades on Saturday nights, or individuals traveling upon the streets afford unwholesome protection to the violator and his very presence is a menace to peace and safety and to disturb the peace of the community."

TIGER FLOWERS DEAD

Tiger Flowers, noted negro pugilist, died following a slight operation in New York Wednesday. Flowers was considered a first class fighter and was a credit to his race.

KENTUCKY LEAF CROP IS SHORT

Reduction of 35 Per Cent Shown in November Crop Report

OTHER CROPS DECLINE

Kentucky's total production of tobacco of all types in 1927 is estimated at 228,442,000 pounds in the November crop report for Kentucky issued by the Louisville office of the U. S. Division of Crop and Livestock Estimates. This is 26 per cent less than the 358,656,000 pounds produced in Kentucky in 1926, and is 45 per cent less than the state's average annual production of 418,492,000 pounds 1922-26 inclusive.

Quality of tobacco in Kentucky is reported as only 76 per cent this season compared to 89 per cent 12-year average, while the quality of the United States total crop is 80.5 per cent this season compared to 81.1 per cent 10-year average.

The Kentucky corn crop this season is estimated at 71,812,000 bushels compared to 101,277,000 bushels last year and an average annual production of 89,042,000 bushels 1922-26 inclusive. Only about 69 per cent of this season's corn crop in Kentucky is reported as being of merchantable quality compared to 81 per cent last year. The average yield of corn per acre this year in Kentucky is 26 bushels compared to 33 bushels in 1926, and 30 bushels 10-year average of 27.9 bushels. Corn production in the United States is estimated at 2,753,249,000 bushels. The crop of 1926 was 2,646,853,000 bushels and the 5-year average 1922-26 was 2,766,561,000 bushels.

EDITOR FIFTY-THREE YEARS

With last week's issue, John W. Zoller completed his fifty-third year as editor of the Mt. Olivet Tribune-Democrat, having established the paper in November, 1874, when he was 19 years old. The veteran editor has one of the best equipped country offices in this section ,and his paper is as newsy and up-to-date as ever. He is in good health and apparently has many more years of usefulness in. In addition to managing affairs of his paper, Mr. Zoller owns several hundred acres of Robertson county land.

$142.22 Per Capita Cost

Of Keeping State Wards Last Year Lowest In History

The biennial report of the State Board of Charities and Corrections for the period from July 1, 1925, to June 30, 1927, required by law to be published in pamphlet form in advance of the assembling of the Legislature, is in the hands of the printer.

It shows per capita expenditures for general maintenance and construction reduced to the lowest figure ever reached—$142.22. This is the average cost to the state for one year for each person in the seven benevolent and penal institutions and is the lowest cost shown in the history of the Board of Charities and Corrections.

In getting these costs down there has been no lowering of the standards in good, well-cooked food, in sanitation, in medical attention, in general efficiency effecting the comfort and welfare of the inmates and patients. Many repairs and replacements were made during this period.

The average population for all the institutions for the year ending June 30 1927, was 4,399, the highest ever reached in Kentucky. At the beginning of the biennial period it was 3,877. In 1921 the number was 6,762.

The compensation paid to prisoners in the penitentiaries out of their earnings on contract work, at ten cents per day each, amounted to $70,260.94 for fiscal year ending June 30, 1927.

TORNADO HITS CAPITOL

A tornado swept Washington, D. C., and outlying sections for twenty miles around, bearing in its path of destruction one known death, at least 200 injured and property damage estimated at several million dollars.

Striking first at Alexandria, Va., eight miles from Washington, the funnel shaped twister swept over an area of a mile and passed into Maryland.

President Disapproves Banker's Plan Of Circulating Money To Build Up Sentiment

In unqualified terms, President Coolidge let it be known Tuesday that the first specific attempt to force the Republican convention to nominate him as its candidate next year had incurred his displeasure.

Breaking a silence of nearly two months, the White House disclosed the President's views in a sharp rebuke to the movement started by a Boston broker to circularize the country by a chain letter system in an endeavor to build up such a dominant sentiment for Mr. Coolidge as to nomination by the Republicans would amount to a nation-wide demand.

In a direct and positive manner, it was made known that the President disapproved the circulation of the petitions, that he failed to see that any good could come from the move, and hat he hoped their circulation would be discontinued.

Negro Attackers Denied Appeal

Supreme Court Refuses To Review Case And Negroes May Hang Friday At Madisonville

Nathan Bard and Bunyan Flemingsburg, negroes, convicted of criminal assault in Hopkins county, were refused a review by the United States Supreme Court Monday. Execution of the death sentence imposed upon them was stayed Saturday by Justice Holmes during the recess of the Supreme Court.

The negroes are sentenced to hang at Madisonville Friday and everything is being made ready for execution if they are not given another stay of execution by Governor Fields.

The negroes were convicted of criminally assaulting Miss Nell Breithaupt, 16 years old, April 7, 1926. They were originally sentenced to hang last June.

FINE TOBACCO CROP

Present Leaf Crop One of Best In Quality in Year

The Nicholas county tobacco crop this season promises to be one of the best, generally, in years, according to farmers throughout the county.

Although the tobacco got a late start last spring, it matured and cured in the barns nicely. From every section come reports of unusually fine quality and good color. However, it is said, the leaf is light in weight.

Several sales to speculators at from 20 to 30 cents per pound have been reported, but most farmers are holding their crops for the markets.
