

OUR HOME TOWN

Center of a 'Rim Market'

THE CENTER of a logical "Rim Market," in a tobacco-growing section, Carlisle is beyond the rim of the concentric circles, marking reasonable hauling distances, that surround the big market.

CARLISLE ITSELF IS THE CENTER of surrounding circles which cover one of the best White Burley producing sections of Kentucky.

A market in Carlisle would draw from Bath, Fleming, Robertson, Montgomery and Bourbon counties. It would eliminate the long haul for hundreds of tobacco raisers in these counties. It would be the logical market for millions of pounds.

- Are we doing, day by day, what we can to bring a market to Carlisle next season?
- Do we boost our home town as the "Logical Market" in this section?
- Do we assume our share of civic responsibility?
- Do we think first of the welfare of the community above our personal gain?

Folks, when we can answer "YES" to these questions, we will have taken a long step toward realization of our goal---

THE BIG OUTLOOK

(Columbian-Journal)
Meeting that the cycle of heavy planting that has been drawing to an end and that the trend of prices will be upward. The financial journal notes that the farmers of the north will not be disappointed for the next year or two. The outlook is bright for the crop that is now being raised. It is not always a big return for the farmer, but it is a return that is sure to be a success as all that.

The outlook for tobacco, which was up around $1.35 a bushel, is bright. Some of the farmers in the Kentucky hills, and many a new and promising one went to the peckers, to bring, perhaps, a little more of the same. The outlook is bright for the crop that is now being raised. It is not always a big return for the farmer, but it is a return that is sure to be a success as all that.

SOUNDING FINE
(Danville Advocate)
Dr. H. M. Marshall, who is an authority on the culture of tomatoes, was this morning by a representative of the Advertiser and Editor relative to the tomato plant. He stated that it has never been raised in the county. He has a quarter of an acre that will be his approach of growth through the Perry store. He has a very fine crop of about this size of the March tomatoes and they were kept off the ground. Most of the tomatoes that have been had were not kept off the ground.

WOMAN'S CHECKED INCOME
This spring here, as H. B. Rowley started with 300 White Leghorns and 100 Blue Game Hens, he was very successful. He has a very fine crop of about this size of the March tomatoes and they were kept off the ground. Most of the tomatoes that have been had were not kept off the ground.
