Two undertakers were found standing in the office of the National Real Estate Association, Monday. It is a disgraceful case of a man who has been standing there in the spring of 1928, and now he is out of the office.

SALE OF LANDS

We will expose at public sale at the Court House doors in Paris, December 29

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 29

at about the hour of Two o'clock P. M., a tract of land located on the Jacktown and Flax Rock Turnpike road, in Bourbon County, Ky., containing Thirty Acres (30A), with the improvements thereon, now occupied by Robert Letton, fronting on said Turnpike Road, and just opposite the property of Robert Parker.

The improvements consist of dwelling house, large conglomeration bank, set of scales, corn crib and other buildings, all in good condition. The land is in grass, well watered and fenced and in the same land conveyed to G. W. Smith by W. B. Smith, April 11th, 1878, by deed recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Bourbon County Court in D. B. 63, page 194.

Said land will be offered upon the following terms: 10 per cent of the purchase money to be paid on day of sale, the balance of one-half to be paid when possession is given and deed executed, which will be on March 1st, 1929, and the remaining one-half due and payable on March 1st, 1930, bearing 6 per cent interest from March 1st, 1929, with lien retained upon said land to secure the payment of said deferred payment, or the purchaser may have the privilege of paying all cash on March 1st, 1929, if he so desire.

The purchaser will be required to pay taxes in 1929. This property is well located, well improved, and is first-class, strong tobacco land. Anyone wishing to see it will call upon the occupants of the premises, or he will be glad to show same to prospective purchasers.

HEIRS OF G. W. SMITH

At the same time and place, the undersigned, as Executor of the estate of Polly A. Smith, will expose to sale land of 22 1/2 Acres of land adjoining the above described tract and which was conveyed to W. B. Smith by the heirs of W. B. Smith.

This land is unimproved, but is strong, fertile land. Terms: 10 per cent cash on day of sale, and the balance of one-half due and payable on March 1st, 1929, with lien retained on said land to secure the payment of said deferred payment, or the purchaser may pay all cash March 1st, 1929, if he so desires. Purchase will be required to pay the taxes in 1929.

Anyone wishing to see the land, and the lines, will call upon any of the heirs of G. W. Smith, who reside near it. For further information, call upon the undersigned.

I. B. ROSS, Executor of the estate of Polly A. Smith.
